WAR ONLY AS LAST ALTERNATIVE SAYS WILSON

RIGHT OF UNITED STATES TO KEEP MEN IN MEXICO IS DEEPIED BY CARRANZA

Memorandum in Reply to Lansing's Note Challenges Correctness of Statements Made, Expresses Surprise That Washington Should Be Offended at Carrancista Document and Declares Presence of American Troops Below Rio Grande Invites Bandit Raids.

Mexico City, June 30.—The foreign office today issued a memorandum in reply to Secretary Lansing's recent note, in which the correctness of assertions in the communication from Washington were repeatedly denied. The memorandum declared that the United States had no right to maintain its armed forces on Mexican soil. Emphatically reiterating the Mexican government's position denying the right of the United States to keep armed bodies in Mexico, the memorandum denies energetically that the Mexican government has protected bandits who had committed depredations in the United States and defies Washington to produce proof of the assertion. The memorandum contains thirty-five counts. Although not in the form of a direct reply to the Lansing note, it is considered equivalent to an answer to that document.

It expresses surprise that the Washington government should be pained at the tone and contents of the Carranza document, since it maintains that the United States has sent to the constitutional government not only one but many courteous and even overbearing notes. Blame for the Santa Ysabel massacre was placed on the so-called impulsive, irascible disposition of Charles Watson, general manager of the Cusi-huachic company, and General Scott and General Funston are accused of bad faith and lack of honor in misleading General Obregon in an alleged evasive reply regarding the crossing of American troops into Mexico after the Glenn Springs raid.

The memorandum asserts that while it is true that the United States arrested General Huerta, the motive which prompted this act was not for the purpose of aiding the constitutional government, but because the United States feared that General Huerta was plotting with Germany.

The note concludes by declaring that the presence of American troops in Mexico invites rather than prevents bandit raids along the border.

The memorandum was issued at the same time that the foreign office authorized publication of Secretary Lansing's recent note.

"It appears strange that the department of state of the United States should be displeased with the tone of the note of this government of May 22, which it terms discourteous when the same department has addressed to the constitutional government not one but many notes in tones not only courteous but threatening."

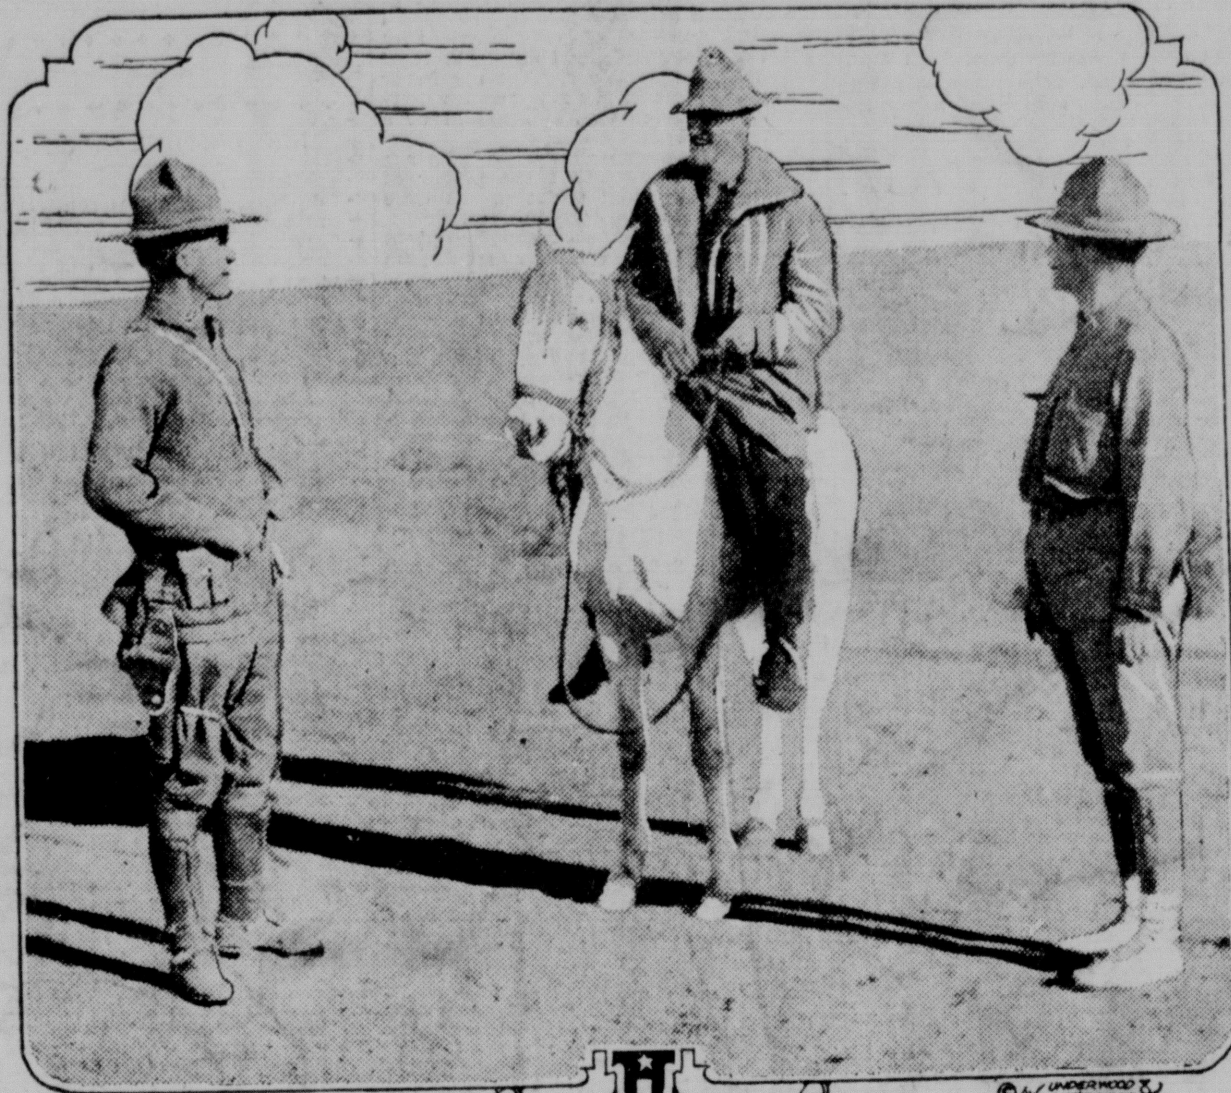

SAYS MANY MEXICANS KILLED.

"During the period alluded to in this note 145 Mexican citizens have been murdered in American territory by American citizens and even by the authorities of the United States, this despite the fact that both nations were in a state of profound peace and in none of these cases, despite repeated remonstrances by the Mexican ambassador at Washington, have any of the guilty been exemplarily punished."

"It is untrue that the Mexican government has protected in any instance criminals attacking American territory. The Mexican government has done all in its power to protect foreign subjects. The fault lies with foreigners, who the Americans who insisted on remaining in disturbed districts despite the repeated warnings."

PERSHING COUNTS ON THESE MEN IN MEXICAN OPERATIONS

Left to right: Capt. A. E. Phillips, Lieut. Henry A. Meyer and Lieut. D. H. Scott.

These three men are valuable aids to Pershing in his Mexican operations. Lieutenant Meyer while leading a detachment of the 10th cavalry picked up on the desert three troopers sent by Captain Morey with a report of the engagement which took place at Carrizal. Captain Phillips is at the head of the machine gun troop, 10th cavalry. Lieut. D. H. Scott is a son of Gen. Hugh L. Scott, commander in chief of the U. S. army.

GUARDSMEN BEGIN ARRIVING AT BORDER

FIRST ILLINOIS REGIMENT GOES INTO CAMP AT FORT SAM HOUSTON.

Seventh New York Sent to Brownsville—Utah Battery at Nogales.

San Antonio, June 30.—The First Illinois infantry, Colonel Sanborn commanding, arrived at Fort Sam Houston tonight and went into camp. The first battalion, headquarters company and supply company, reached San Antonio late this afternoon, the second battalion at 8 o'clock and the third battalion two hours later.

The Seventh New York regiment reached San Antonio late tonight and was transferred without detouring to the San Antonio and Aransas Pass railroad which will carry them to their station near Brownsville. It was said at headquarters tonight that when it was announced that the New York troops would be sent to Brownsville, it was not meant that they would be stationed in Brownsville but that they would be quartered in the Brownsville district. Arrangements have been made to have certain units detain at points throughout that troubled section nearest to their stations. Other New York regiments including the seventy-first infantry are expected shortly but definite news of their movements was withheld.

The First Illinois marched at once to the camp assigned to them known as Camp A, at the head of the line provided for the Illinois and Wisconsin brigades. The first regiment will be followed in twenty-four hours from now by the Second Illinois regiment, while the third unit of the first brigade, the Seventh Illinois, is expected to reach camp Sunday night. It is hoped that the entire two Illinois brigades will reach Fort Sam Houston within five or six days. The second regiment will be located at Camp B, and the seventh at Camp C. These camps previously were occupied by the Texas guardsmen now on the border and are fully equipped. The camp designed for the First Illinois cavalry adjoins the site selected for the Wisconsin brigade.

The work of locating the national guard organization when they arrive at their stations has been thoroughly systematized. When the troops arrive, the commanding officer is met by a representative of the quartermaster's department and handed an envelope containing a blue print of the camp and surrounding country and the location of post and telegraph offices and quarters depots and answering every question he might have to ask. All that is necessary for the commander to do is to consult the map, march his men to their allotted camp and report his arrival to the adjutant general.

The work of medical examination and of swearing the guardsmen into the federal service will go forward at once. No news of clashes between United States troops and Mexicans were reported to General Funston tonight from any point.

The Illinois regiment was the second command called out by the president June 18 to reach its station, a battalion of Utah artillery having reached Nogales earlier today.

GERMAN SUBMARINE IN CHESAPEAKE BAY

New York, June 30.—The Trans-Atlantic Trust company of this city, which has been recognized here as an unofficial financial agent of the Austrian and German governments, announced today in a half-page advertisement in the Hungarian daily Amerikai Maigiar Nepszava, that the German submarine so frequently reported as being on the way here from Hamburg, reached Baltimore Thursday morning and is now concealed somewhere nearby, presumably under the waters of Chesapeake bay.

The directorate of the Trust company includes the name of the Austro-Hungarian consul general, Alexander Nuber von Perked. Officials of the trust company refused to make known the exact whereabouts of the mysterious craft.

VOLUNTARY FORECAST.

By Isidor Block, D. O. S., F. R., Met. S., Optician and Meteorologist.

Generally fair with still a probability of scattered showers. There is an extensive area of low pressure extending from Minnesota southwestward, and this of itself would have a tendency to cause local showers. The temperature at Phoenix, Ariz., yesterday was again hovering around 104, with the mercury at El Paso at 102. Scattered showers have fallen practically all over the country.

Local Readings. Local readings for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 o'clock last night: Maximum temperature 93½ at 3 p. m., minimum 74 at 6 a. m., barometer 29.98, humidity 50, wind passage 197 miles, fastest 26 miles an hour at 4 p. m.

Government Forecast. Washington, June 30.—Forecast: East Texas—Saturday unsettled, warmer in northeast portion; Sunday unsettled. West Texas—Saturday and Sunday fair.

ALLIES VICTORIOUS IN ALL DIRECTIONS

RUSSIANS CAPTURE KOLOMEA AND FRENCH RETAKE THE THIAUMONT WOOD.

Italians Pressing Austrians Back and the British Are Bombarding German Lines.

By the Associated Press.

The French and British continue their raids against the Germans in France, the French having captured the Thiaumont wood northeast of Verdun and the British having kept up their bombardment of German trenches and their incursions into German positions by raiding parties. The Russians have taken Kolomea, an important railway junction leading to Lemberg in Galicia, and the Italians continue to advance against the Austrians in the Trentino region. The struggle for the possession of the Thiaumont work taken by the German crown prince's forces from the French a week ago was most severe, the position changing hands several times in the incessant fighting.

Violent bombardments have marked the fighting on the remainder of the front around Verdun, particularly on the sector of Hill 304.

The British are keeping up their tactics of destroying by artillery fire German first and second line trenches from Ypres to the Somme. Unofficially, it is reported that the British are expending more than a million shells a day in this work.

In addition to the capture of Kolomea, the Russian also have taken the town of Obertine, northeast of Kolomea and several other villages north and south of that point.

On the front in Russia from the Galician border to the region of Riga there have been battles at various points, but with no decisive results. The Italian army taken Griso and several other mountain positions southeast of Trent. Their advance against the Austrians also has resulted in the capture of nearly a thousand prisoners, as well as stores of arms and ammunition. Vienna claims only the repulse of attacks in this sector.

An unofficial report of a battle between Russian and German squadrons in the Baltic sea south of Stockholm on Thursday has been received in London from Stockholm.

Bombardment Heavy. British Headquarters in France, June 30.—The fourth day of the British bombardment of the German positions sees no diminution of the volume of fire, which continues almost the whole line without cessation day or night, cutting barbed wire entanglements, demolishing first and second line trenches, and blowing up and placing curtains of fire on the roads and communicating trenches.

Considerably more than a million of shells a day are being expended and there seems to be no limit to the supply of them. British infantry actions have been limited thus far to raids under cover of the smoke of German mortar fire, which ascertains the state of the German wire and trenches. The new type of British mortar is capable of such rapid fire that six shots in the air at once proved highly serviceable both in cutting off wire and the smashing of trenches.

Last night the sky from twenty to thirty miles in the rear toward the east was brilliant as if with the glare of the aurora borealis from dusk to dawn. This was the only illumination along the roads for the movement of trucks and automobiles, none of which carried lights. From a point near a group of batteries the correspondent witnessed a scene of grandeur under the canopy of a cloudless and moonless night, with broad sheets of flame and vally flashes and darts of fire over the area of action.

Today the sun is breaking through the overcast sky for the first time in three days and is welcome to the artillery observers.

NO GLORY FOR AMERICA IN CONQUEST OF MEXICO PRESIDENT'S CONCLUSION

Not Duty of United States "To Carry Self Defense to Point of Dictation Into Affairs of Another People"—Utterances at New York Press Club Banquet Loudly Cheered—Not a Servant of Those Wishing to Enhance Mexican Investments, Declares Wilson.

New York, June 30.—President Wilson made it plain in his speech at the New York Press club banquet tonight that he will not countenance a war with Mexico until there is no other alternative for settling the border troubles.

Again he declared that he was ready to sacrifice his own political fortunes in order to carry out his convictions as to what would be the just course to pursue in the situation.

The president's audience, composed of newspapermen, state and municipal political leaders and other prominent in public life, signified their indorsement of his position by repeated outbursts of applause. When he asked if the glory of American would be enhanced by a war of conquest in Mexico, shouts of "No" came from all parts of the banquet hall. A similar response was made to his query whether it is America's duty to "carry self-defense to the point of dictation into the affairs of another people."

The president dwelt also on his efforts to serve the whole people, thousands of whom, he said, are appealing to him to maintain peace as long as possible.

SERVANT OF RANK AND FILE.

"I have constantly to remind myself," he said, "that I am not the servant of those who wish to enhance the value of their Mexican investments, but that I am the servant of the rank and file of the people of the United States."

Mainbridge Colby, who placed Theodore Roosevelt in nomination for the presidency at the progressive convention at Chicago, paid President Wilson high tribute in an address, but did not declare unqualifiedly his support for him in the coming campaign, as it was reported he would do.

PROGRESSIVES WILL SUIT SELVES.

"I am a progressive," he said, "I was one of the party's organizers. I shall stick by the ship until it is recognized by passengers, crew and officers alike that it must be abandoned. I cannot leave until the water is up to my chin. I will say this, however, speaking for the rank and file, that the friends of Woodrow Wilson in the party are legion. The stalking horse of the national committee may vary, but the resolution to have the votes of really conservatives to their own conscience, but I think the actions of progressives are to be determined and dictated by their individual judgment and nothing else."

President Wilson arose from his seat and shook hands with Mr. Colby as he finished speaking. Later the president paid tribute to Mr. Colby's generosity. Mayor John F. Mitchell, Ralph Pulitzer and Irvin S. Cobb also spoke. President Wilson did not begin to speak until almost 11 o'clock.

The presidential party, which included Mrs. Wilson, the president's son, Mr. Colby, and a number of other guests, occupied a balcony behind huge American flags. Dr. Cary T. Grayson and Secretary Tumulty, left for Washington at 12:30 o'clock.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S SPEECH.

In his address President Wilson said: "I realize that I have done a very imprudent thing; I have come to address this thoughtful company of men without any preparation whatever. If I could have written as witty a speech as Mr. Pulitzer I would have written it. If I could have written as clear an enunciation of the fundamental ideas of American patriotism as the mayor I should have attempted it. If I could have been as appealing a person and of as feeling a heart as Mr. Colby I would have felt safe. If I could have been as generous and interesting and genuine as Mr. Colby, I should have felt that I could let myself go without any preparation. But, gentlemen, as a matter of fact, I have been absorbed by the responsibilities which have been frequently referred here tonight and that preoccupation has made it impossible for me to forecast even what you would like to hear me talk about.

"There is something very oddly contradictory about the men who have on me. You are sometimes, particularly in your photographic enterprises, very brutal to me, and you sometimes invade my privacy even to the extent of formulating my judgments before they are formed, and yet I am tempted when I stand face to face with you to take off all guard and merely expose myself to you as the fallible human being that I am."

"Mr. Colby said something that was among the few things I had forecast to say myself. He said that there are some things which it is really useless to debate because they go as a matter of course."

"Of course it is our duty to prepare this nation to take care of its honor and of its institutions. Why debate any part of that except the detail, except the plan itself, which is always debatable?"

"Of course it is the duty of the government, which it will never overstep to defend the territory and people of this country. It goes without saying that it is the duty of the administration to have constantly in mind with the utmost sensitiveness every point of national honor."

"But, gentlemen, after you have said and accepted these obvious things your program of action is still to be formed. When will you act and how will you act?"

TO STRIKE IS EASIEST THING.

"The easiest thing is to strike. The brutal thing is the impulsive thing. No man has to think before he takes aggressive action, but another man has to think before he realizes the ideals of the nation he has to think exactly what he will do and how he will do it."

"Do you think the glory of America would be enhanced by a war of conquest in Mexico? Do you think that any act of violence by a powerful nation like this against a weak and destructive neighbor would reflect distinction upon the annals of the United States?"

"Do you think that it is our duty to carry self defense to a point of dictation into the affairs of another people? The ideals of America are written plain upon every page of American history."

"And I want you to know how fully I realize where the government of the United States even for the time being. I

Defiant Answer Expected With Strong Assurances Of Border Protection

Washington, June 30.—Although no official reply from the Carranza government to the American demand for an explanation of its purposes had been received tonight, private advice tonight from Mexico City indicated that a defiant answer was being prepared.

The uncompromising character of a memorandum published in Mexico City today, specifically denying all the allegations of the previous American note in answer to Carranza's demand for withdrawal of the troops, appears to bear out these advices. Intimations have reached officials here, however, that the de facto government may give strong assurances in its note that border raids will be prevented by a strong patrol of Mexican troops if the United States will withdraw its forces.

Although Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City was informed two days ago that he might expect to be handed the Mexican note that day, he has made no mention of it in later dispatches. Some officials believed it possible the communication would come through Mr. Arredondo and that its actual delivery would be conditioned on the situation at the time he received it. Efforts at arranging mediation favored by Carranza officials led to the belief that the reply would be withheld at the last moment if there seemed any chance that the Washington government would listen to such proposals.

Another communication was sent to the state department today by Mr. Arredondo protesting against the shooting of a Mexican customs inspector by American soldiers stationed at Ysleta, Texas, as reported by Mexican Consul Garcia at El Paso. According to Mr. Garcia the soldiers fired across the Rio Grande at two customs officers without any provocation whatever. The body of the dead Mexican was removed by his companion after dark, it was said.

The cabinet had no official advices in any way changing the situation when it assembled today at a regular meeting. The crisis was discussed and it was stated that no change in policy was contemplated. Immediately after the meeting President Wilson left to keep speaking engagement tonight in New York.

There is every reason to believe Mr. Wilson will act promptly if the Carranza government formally accepts the construction placed upon its orders to General Trevino in Secretary Lansing's note and which it has been asked either to affirm or withdraw. Mr. Lansing characterized the order an act of deliberate hostility.

Federal Bond Issue Plan To Meet Mexican Emergency If Other Funds Give Out

Washington, June 30.—An agreement under which congress is expected to authorize a federal bond issue to meet the extraordinary expenses of the Mexican emergency was reached today by administration leaders. Under the terms of which an issue actually would be made only in case the ordinary resources of the treasury and the additional $20,000,000 expected from the administration revenue bill prove insufficient.

What form the bonds will take should an issue be found necessary, has not been determined. Some leaders favor issuance of some of the Panama canal bonds of which a balance of $240,559,000 remains in the treasury and others believe a special emergency bond should be put out. Treasury officials emphasized, however, that in view of a net balance of close to $200,000,000 on hand at the end of the fiscal year tonight, the authority asked of congress might not have to be invoked.

The whole revenue situation has been gone over minutely in a series of conferences between McAdoo, Chairman Simmons of the senate finance committee and Chairman Kitchen of the house ways and means committee.

Mr. McAdoo is understood to have presented President Wilson's views that the extraordinary expenses of the Mexican crisis should not be met out of current revenues and the committee chairman agreed that a bond issue might be advisable.

Another result of the conference was a decision to start the new revenue bill through immediately. It probably will be passed by the house next week. The exact amount of the treasury surplus for the fiscal year will not be known until tomorrow night. It was $174,171,845, and officials believed today's receipts up to today were $84,191,875 as compared with $42,525,149 a year ago.

Internal revenue offices throughout the country kept open until midnight and the yearly total from the tax was expected to amount to more than $15,000,000. Nearly fifty per cent of the $55,000,000 it yielded last year came in during the last day of the fiscal year. The total ordinary receipts for the year including June 29, were $712,554,674.

Which will have from thirty to forty students and which will also be a manufactory for flying machines, is scheduled this fall.

FRAMING DRAFT OF PROCLAMATION.

The framing of a proclamation applying to the National Guard, the drafts authorized in the resolution authorized by congress this week, was begun by legal officers at the war department. It will be ready for President Wilson's signature whenever he decides that step is necessary.

With regard to ordnance and quartermaster's supplies for the army now being forwarded to the front, it was said that ample provision has been made for all the present force and also to care for proper reserves. There is no shortage of small arms or ammunition and field artillery can be supplied faster than men can be trained to handle the guns.

Officers of the general staff are related over the success of the plans they had mapped out for the mobilization. It has been accomplished through centralization of authority, placing on each official a definite duty he is to perform without reference to any higher authority and requiring that he perform it promptly.

AMERICANS' ENEMY PLACED IN COMMAND AT MATAMOROS AGAIN

Brownsville, June 30.—General Emiliano T. Nafarrate, commander of the Tamaulipas division of the Mexican de facto government's army, and former commander at Matamoros, arrived at the Mexican town opposite here tonight, apparently confirming reports that he will succeed General Alfredo Ricaut as chief of the Matamoros garrison.

General Nafarrate was accompanied by General Eugenio Lopez, who succeeded him as commander at Matamoros following the bandit raids last summer, and an army of 500 Luchitecos Indians, the famous barefoot soldiers from San Luis Potosi. Lopez is but 21 years old.

Nafarrate on June 17 issued a proclamation at Tampico declaring a state of war existed between the United States and Mexico and called upon all Mexicans to arm themselves against the "invaders."

Mexicans Who Wanted to Fight Must Stay Out

Douglas, Ariz., June 30.—Immigration officials today refused the applications for re-admission to the United States of a large number of Mexicans who recently left Arizona with the avowed intention of taking up arms in behalf of Mexico.

To Reopen Postoffice at Agua Prieta

Douglas, Ariz., June 30.—General P. Elias Calles, commander of the Sonora military zone, today ordered Tomas Espinosa, postmaster, to reopen the postoffice at Agua Prieta. The order was issued upon complaint of residents of Mexican towns south of here.

It was stated also that General Calles has declined to intercede in behalf of several Mexicans arrested here and at other towns in Arizona on charges of attempting to incite their countrymen.

AMERICA IN CONQUEST OF MEXICO PRESIDENT'S CONCLUSION

have no right in the use of it to express my own passions. I have no right to express my own ambitions for the development of America if those ambitions are not coincident with the ambitions of the nation itself.

"I get a great many letters from important and influential men in this country, but I get a great many more letters from unknown men, from humble women, from people whose names have never been heard and never will be recorded and there is but one prayer in all of these letters: 'Mr. President, do not allow anybody to persuade you that the people of this country want war with anybody.'"

"I got off a train yesterday and as I was bidding goodbye to the engineer he said in an undertone: 'Mr. President, keep out of Mexico, and if one man has said that to me, a foreigner, I have said to me as I have moved about the country.'"

"If I have opportunity to engage them further in conversation they say 'of course, we know that you govern the circumstances of the case altogether and it may be necessary, but for God's sake do not do it unless it is necessary.'"

FORCE NEVER DOES ANYTHING.

"I am for the time being the spokesman of such people, gentlemen, I have not read history without observing that the greatest forces in the world and the only permanent forces are the normal forces. We have the evidence of a very competent witness, namely the first Napoleon, who said that as he looked back in the last days of his life upon so much as he knew of human history, he had to record a judgment that force had never accomplished anything that was permanent.

"Force will not accomplish anything that is permanent, I venture to say, in the great struggle which is going on the other side of the sea. The permanent things will be accomplished afterward when the opinion of mankind is brought to issue on the issues and the only thing that will hold the world steady is this same silent, insistent, all powerful opinion of mankind.

"Force can sometimes hold things steady until opinion has time to form but no force that was ever exerted except in response to that opinion was ever a conquering and predominant force.

"I think the sentence in American history that I myself am proudest of is that in the introductory sentences of the Declaration of Independence where the writers say that a due respect for the opinion of mankind demands that they state the reasons for what they were about to do. I venture to say that a decent respect for the opinions of mankind demands that those who started the present European war should have stated their reasons, but they did not pay any heed to the opinion of mankind and the reckoning will come when the settlement comes.

WANTS VERDICT OF MANKIND.

"So, gentlemen, I am willing, no matter what my personal fortunes may be, to play for the verdict of mankind. Personally, it will be a matter of indifference to me what the verdict of the seventh of November is, provided I feel any degree of confidence that when a last jury sits I shall get their judgment in my favor. Not my favor personally, but in my favor as an honest and conscientious spokesman of a great nation.

"There are some gentlemen who are under the delusion that the power of a nation comes from the top. It does not. It comes from the bottom. "Power and virtue of the tree does not come from the blossoms and the fruit down into the roots, but it comes from roots in the obscure passages of the earth, where the power is derived which displays its blossoms and the fruit. I know that all along the silent, speechless masses of the American people are slowly coming up that sap of moral purpose and love for justice and reverence for humanity which constitutes the only virtue and distinction of the American people.

CANNOT PICK RULERS OF FUTURE.

"Look for your rulers of the future! Can you pick out the families that are to produce the rulers of the future? Can you pick out the localities that are going to produce them?"

"You have heard what has been said about Abraham Lincoln. It is singular, how touching every reference to Abraham Lincoln is. It always makes you feel that you wish you had been there to help him in some fashion to fight the battles that he was fighting, sometimes almost alone.

"And could you have predicted, had you seen Abraham Lincoln's birth and boyhood, that that great ruling figure of the world was to come from?"

"I have presided over a university, but I never have deceived myself by supposing that by university processes you were producing the ruling force of the world. I knew that all authority could do if it knew its business was to interpret the moral forces of the world and lead the young man who sat under its influence. The very truth of truths about where it came from and that no man produce it unless he felt it in his blood every corporeal spring into delighted life with the mention of ideals which have lifted men slowly up the rugged grades which have resisted progress since the world began.

"So, gentlemen, I have not come here tonight to do anything but remind you that you do not constitute the United States; that I do not constitute the United States; that it is something bigger and greater and finer than any of us; that it was born in an ideal and only by pursuing an ideal in the face of every adverse circumstance will it continue to deserve the beloved name which we love and for which we are ready to die, the name America."

RIGHT OF UNITED STATES TO KEEP MEN IN MEXICO IS DENIED BY CARRANZA

of the Mexican government. As our own citizens have suffered on account of the conduct of affairs it is hardly just that foreigners should be expected to be immune."

The note cites the case of Charles Watson, one of the victims of the Santa Ysabel massacre, who it states, insisted on making the fatal journey despite a warning from General Trevino, the military governor in Chihuahua.

"It is a fact," the note says, "which the American military authorities cannot deny that on March 15 General Gaviña advised the latter that he had trustworthy intelligence that Villa and his bandits were on the way to the frontier. He also warned them that Villa was going by way of Las Palomas, thus giving the American authorities ample time in which to prepare to meet the danger. The constitutionalists, on receipt of news of the movement of Villa and right after the attack on Columbus, sent 1,500 men under General Gutierrez as rapidly as possible to the northern part of the state of Chihuahua with orders to pursue the bandits relentlessly. It is well known that the pursuit began immediately and that the bandits were dispersed."

PARRAL AFFAIR FAULT OF AMERICANS.

"The imputation of the American government that the constitutionalist government had no desire to put an end to these attacks is untrue. It is well known that the affair at Parral resulted from the impudence of the commander of the American troops, who entered the town well knowing that the Mexican commander had not given his consent.

"It is absolutely untrue that Mexican troops have been guilty of disloyalty as imputed in the note. The disloyalty of state. The Mexican government could do no less than consider improper the presence of American troops on Mexican soil since the original orders given to them were, according to the American press, to undertake immediate pursuit of the Villa bandits and return to their encampments.

"It is also true that the constitutionalist government protected American troops against the just indignation of the people of Parral, who were aroused by their presence.

"The note of the secretary of state described as a convention what was simply a proposition which the Mexican government made conditionally to the government of the United States in the note of March 10, to establish reciprocity for the passage of troops in pursuit of bandits, if, on any other part of the frontier there should occur acts such as those at Columbus.

isly the Mexican people in regard to the cause of the presence of American troops in Mexican territory.

"The United States has undertaken to abuse the terms of agreement, as all its acts show evidently that it did not wish to confine itself to the pursuit of the bandits."

"I'm for Hughes," Says Wm. H. Taft

Bridgehampton, N. Y., June 30.—Charles Hughes discussed the coming political campaign for two hours today with William H. Taft. Over a luncheon at the republican presidential nominee's summer home, the former president and Mr. Hughes took up the chief issues of the day and went over the tentative campaign plans. Mrs. Hughes presided at the luncheon and participated in the discussion.

Apparently the time was too short for a full exchange of opinions for after the conference was over and Mr. Taft stood waiting at the railroad station for his train Mr. Hughes drew him aside for a few minutes. They walked out of earshot of the little group that had surrounded them and continued in confidential conversation emphasized by earnest gestures.

"I am for Judge Hughes," Mr. Taft said tonight. "I want to see him elected and I shall do all I can to assist him."

"Will you take the stump for him?" some one asked.

"I shall obey orders," he replied. "Did you ever hear of a president making a speech? Why, Brother Bryan and I are the champion long-distance speakers of the world. We are in the same class. I am willing to do anything that will help."

Mr. Taft was asked about the report that he would speak from the same platform as Mr. Hughes and Colonel Roosevelt.

"A sort of a three-ring circus?" questioned the former president, his eyes twinkling. "I don't think that would be wasting a lot of oratorical ammunition on one audience."

Mr. Taft had nothing to say as to his views on political news as he was about to depart that he might soon meet Colonel Roosevelt.

PROHIBITION IN RUSSIA.

Petrograd, June 30.—The duma today passed the bill permanently prohibiting the sale of drink containing more than one and one-half per cent of alcohol. The measure must be passed by the upper house and signed by the emperor before becoming a law.

'NOTHER NEW BANDIT LEADER IN MEXICO

CHIEF GOAT-GETTER IS GETTING EVERYTHING IN SIGHT ON WEST COAST.

Aged Refugee Sighs Because Pigs Will Starve—Is Destitute Himself.

San Francisco, June 30.—Twenty-nine American refugees from Colima and Guadalajara, Mex., among them women and children, who fled from their homes to the west coast, arrived here today on the Pacific mail steamer Peru, which put in at Manzanillo to take aboard the refugees in answer to a wireless call from the cruiser Albany. Many of them were almost destitute.

A new bandit leader who calls himself "General Chibo," Chibo meaning goat, has risen and is terrorizing the territory inland from the west coast, the refugees said. He calls his company of bandits "Chibetas," which means little goats, who, led by their "General Chibo," are seizing everything they can find in the war devastated territory.

The most picturesque figure of the band of homeless Americans was James Montgomery, who is about 90 years old and a veteran of the Indian wars of 1855. It is his first trip out of Mexico in twenty-four years and he arrived destitute, but his pig was not for himself but for twenty pigs he left behind.

"They will starve now," he said.

Douglas G. Macneil, consul general of Great Britain on the Mexican west coast, and his wife were aboard the Peru. He declared that residents there will be forced to go inland and live on the products of the soil in the most primitive manner, all other means of sustenance is fast disappearing.

Fortifications Bill Passes Senate

Washington, June 30.—The fortifications appropriation bill, one of the administration's big three defense measures, was passed by the senate today and sent to the house for conference. Its total had been reduced from $24,300,000 as it passed the house, to $24,500,000. The bill provides for both land and field artillery ordnance and ammunition. Last year's appropriation was seventeen million dollars.

The senate retained the house amendment providing three-quarters of a million dollars for purchase of an invention by John Hays Hammond, Jr., for wireless control of torpedo, if the invention meets government tests and the approval of the president and also adopted a house provision disapproving of speeding up tests in government arsenals.

The senate added four million dollars to the bill for ammunition.

Tauscher Acquitted of Conspiracy

New York, June 30.—Hans Tauscher, former German army officer, was acquitted today by a jury of conspiracy to blow up the Welland canal.

The jury was out fifty minutes. When the verdict was read Captain Tauscher's wife, Mrs. Gadsdill, the opera singer, wept with happiness.

Besides Tauscher, Captain Franz Von Papen, Germany's recalled military attaché, Wolf Von Engel, his secretary, and two others were named in the conspiracy indictment. Tauscher has been agent here of the Krupp gun works. He was the first to be tried.

Yukon Will Vote on Prohibition

Dawson, Yukon Territory, June 30.—Workers for prohibition here today were celebrating the passage by the Yukon Territorial legislature of a bill seeking a referendum election on the question of prohibition in Yukon Territory to be held not later than September 1, next.

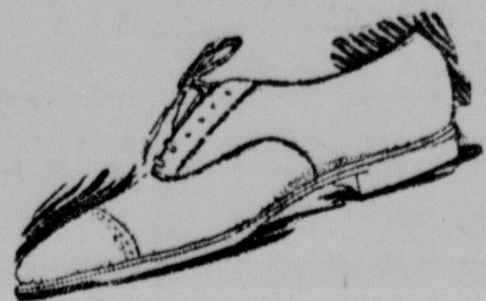

If adopted by the voters, prohibition would become effective July 1, 1917. The bill prohibits the manufacture and sale of intoxicants of all kinds and makes no provision for importation for personal consumption. Only intoxicants for medicinal and technical purposes would be permitted to enter the territory.

Diaz' Supporter Deported.

Washington, June 30.—A dispatch today from Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City told of the departure from Vera Cruz for New York of Mrs. Pedro de El Villar, a Mexican woman who had been imprisoned by Carranza authorities at Mexico City on a charge of having aided the revolution of Felix Diaz. The de facto government permitted her departure.

Still Shipping to Pershing.

Columbus, N. M., June 30.—Shipment of food and munitions to the Colonia Dublan base was resumed today after an interruption of thirty-six hours. Reports of scouts exploded a story that the Carrancistas were threatening to cut the American line of communication.

SENDS MILITIAMEN TO MEXICAN BORDER

Major General Thomas H. Barry.

Major General Thomas H. Barry, commanding the central department, has been directed to send to the border 5,000 national guardsmen of the central states as fast as it can be done, regardless of the sections of the department from which they must be obtained. The urgency of the order indicates the need of reinforcements.

SEES VICTORY FOR PROHIBITIONISTS

Virgil G. Hinshaw.

Neither a donkey nor an elephant but a camel will be the emblem over the portals of the White House in 1920, according to Virgil G. Hinshaw, national chairman of the Prohibition party. Hinshaw will open the national Prohibition convention at St. Paul, Minn., July 18.

House Insists on Fund to Relieve Guardsmen

Washington, June 30.—The Hay bill to appropriate $2,000,000 for relief of dependent families of national guardsmen called into the federal service was favorably reported to the house today and will be taken up for passage tomorrow.

As amended in committee the bill provides that the secretary of war shall distribute the fund in his discretion but that not more than $50 be paid any one family per month. The committee struck out the discretionary authority to "honorably discharge" enlisted men with dependent families and inserted a new provision that the action of the secretary of war in enforcing that act shall be final and not subject to court review.

Kitchener's Will Filed.

London, June 30.—The will of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, the British secretary of war, who lost his life in the sinking of the cruiser Hampshire, admitted to probate today shows he left an estate valued at approximately $850,000.

Missouri Troops Start.

Nevada, Mo., June 30.—The first section of the First infantry regiment of St. Louis left here at 5:25 o'clock yesterday noon over the Missouri Pacific for Laredo, Texas. The second section was scheduled to leave an hour later. This regiment is the first unit of the Missouri national guard to entrain for the border.

Columbus Raiders Hanged.

Dennis, N. M., June 30.—Four Villalobos who took part in the Columbus raid were executed by hanging in the county jail here today.

Thoughtful Women Give Stamped Post Cards to Troops

Several Waco women yesterday conceived an idea that was put into execution, much to the delight of some of the thousands of National Guardsmen from the North and East who are passing through this city almost constantly now. Going down to view some of the troop trains, the women found that many of the soldier boys were anxious to write home, but that their steps had been so short that they had been unable to procure stamps and paper. The women immediately purchased a quantity of stamps and post cards of Waco scenes and waited for the next train to arrive.

So far as known, this is the first work of this kind. Red Cross societies along the routes, at Fort Worth, for instance, are serving the troops chocolate and other light refreshments as they stop for a few minutes.

When the two trains carrying the Seventh infantry, New York, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, the boys were given fifteen minutes to come up town and for the short time the streets were almost flooded with the soldiers hunting caps and fruit stands. Accompanying this regiment was a war correspondent of the New York Sun.

Holding Americans' Gold.

Washington, June 30.—The state department was officially advised today that gold and silver bullion belonging to Americans and seized by local Mexican authorities at Manzanillo totalled nearly $500,000. The seizures were reported to have begun before the Carranza incident. A protest already has been made to General Carranza.

AMERICANS' ENEMY PLACED IN COMMAND AT MATAMOROS AGAIN

Brownsville, June 30.—General Emiliano T. Nafarrate, commander of the Tamaulipas division of the Mexican de facto government's army, and former commander at Matamoros, arrived at the Mexican town opposite here tonight, apparently confirming reports that he will succeed General Alfredo Ricca as chief of the Matamoros garrison.

General Nafarrate was accompanied by General Eugenio Lopez, who succeeded him as commander at Matamoros following the bandit raids last summer, and an army of 500 Juichiteno Indians, the famous harfoot soldiers from San Luis Potosi. Lopez is but 21 years old.

Nafarrate on June 17 issued a proclamation at Tampico declaring a state of war existed between the United States and Mexico and called upon all Mexicans to arm themselves against the "invaders."

He was reported last week to have been given the northeastern border command for the failure of General Ricca to attack the Anderson punitive expedition which spent twenty-four hours on Mexican soil June 17-18.

The first of the additional United States regulars ordered to the border in the recent army movements reached here this afternoon, including two batteries of the Fifth field artillery from Fort Sill, Okla.

The note also states that Carranza has undertaken to abuse the terms of agreement, as all its acts show evidently that it did not wish to confine itself to the pursuit of the bandits."

PROHIBITION IN RUSSIA.

Petrograd, June 30.—The duma today passed the bill permanently prohibiting the sale of drink containing more than one and one-half per cent of alcohol. The measure must be passed by the upper house and signed by the emperor before becoming a law.

'NOTHER NEW BANDIT LEADER IN MEXICO

CHIEF GOAT-GETTER IS GETTING EVERYTHING IN SIGHT ON WEST COAST.

Aged Refugee Sighs Because Pigs Will Starve—Is Destitute Himself.

San Francisco, June 30.—Twenty-nine American refugees from Colima and Guadalajara, Mex., among them women and children, who fled from their homes to the west coast, arrived here today on the Pacific Mail steamer Peru, which put in at Manzanillo to take aboard the refugees in answer to a wireless call from the cruiser Albany. Many of them were almost destitute.

A new bandit leader who calls himself "General Chibio," Chibio meaning goat, has risen and is terrorizing the territory inland from the west coast, the refugees said. He calls his company of bandits "chibetas," which means little goats, who, led by their "General Chibio," are seizing everything they can find in the war devastated territory.

The most picturesque figure of the band of homeless Americans was James Montgomery, who is about 90 years old and a veteran of the Indian wars of 1855. It is his first trip out of Mexico in twenty-four years and he arrived destitute; but his pigs were not for himself but for twenty pigs he left behind.

"They will starve now," he said. Douglas G. C. Macneil, consul general of Great Britain on the Mexican west coast, and his wife were on the Peru. He declared that residents there will be forced to go inland and live on the products of the soil in the most primitive manner as all other means of sustenance is fast disappearing.

Fortifications Bill Passes Senate

Washington, June 30.—The fortifications appropriation bill, one of the administration's big three defense measures, was passed by the senate today and sent to the house for conference. Its total had been reduced from $34,300,000 as it passed the house, to $26,500,000. The bill provides for both coast and field artillery ordnance and ammunition. Last year's appropriation was seventeen million dollars.

The senate retained the house amendment providing three-quarters of an invention by John Hays Hammond, Jr., for wireless control of torpedo, if the approval of the president and also adopted a house provision disapproving of speeding up tests in government arsenals.

The senate added four million dollars to the bill for ammunition.

Tauscher Acquitted of Conspiracy

New York, June 30.—Hans Tauscher, former German army officer, was acquitted today by a jury of conspiracy to blow up the Welland canal.

The jury was out fifty minutes. When the verdict was read Captain Tauscher's wife, Mrs. Gadshere, the opera singer, went with happiness.

Besides Tauscher, Captain Franz von Papien, Germany's recalled military attaché, Wolf von Ingel, his secretary, and two others were named in the conspiracy indictment. Tauscher has been agent here of the Krupp gun works. He was the first to be tried.

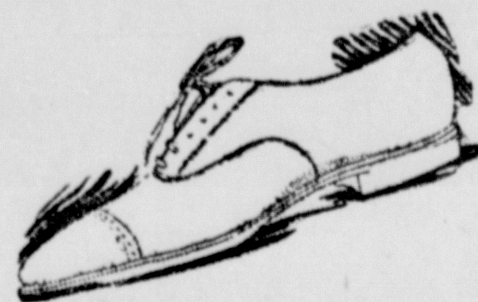

Yukon Will Vote on Prohibition

Dawson, Yukon Territory, June 30.—Workers for prohibition here today were celebrating the passage by the Yukon Territorial legislature of a bill seeking a referendum election on the question of prohibition in Yukon Territory to be held not later than September 1, next.

If adopted by the voters, prohibition would become effective July 14, 1917. The bill prohibits the manufacture and sale of intoxicants of all kinds and makes no provision for importation for personal consumption. Only ingredients for medicinal and technical purposes would be permitted to enter the territory.

Diaz' Supporter Deported.
Washington, June 30.—A dispatch today from Special Agent Rodgers at Mexico City told of the departure from Vera Cruz for New York of Mrs. Pedro del Villar, a Mexican woman who had been imprisoned by Carranza authorities at Mexico City on a charge of having aided the revolution of Felix Diaz. The de facto government permitted her departure.

Still Shipping to Pershing.
Columbus, N. M., June 30.—Shipment of food and munitions to the Colonia Dublan base was resumed today after an interruption of thirty-six hours. Reports of scouts explored a story that the Carrancistas were threatening to cut the American line of communication.

SENDS MILITIAMEN TO MEXICAN BORDER

Major General Thomas H. Barry.

Major General Thomas H. Barry, commanding the central department, has been directed to send to the border 5,000 national guardsmen of the central states as fast as it can be done, regardless of the sections of the department from which they are obtained. The urgency of the order indicates the need of reinforcements.

Virgil G. Hinshaw.

Neither a donkey nor an elephant but a camel will be the emblem on the portals of the White House in 1920, according to Virgil G. Hinshaw, national chairman of the Prohibition party. Hinshaw will open the national Prohibition convention at St. Paul, Minn., July 18.

House Insists on Fund to Relieve Guardsmen

Washington, June 30.—The Hay bill to appropriate $2,000,000 for relief of dependent families of national guardsmen called into the federal service was favorably reported to the house today and will be taken up for passage tomorrow.

As amended in committee the bill provides that the secretary of war shall distribute the fund in his discretion but that not more than $50 be paid any one family per month. The committee struck out the discretionary authority to "honorably discharge" enlisted men with dependent families and inserted a new provision that the action of the secretary of war in enforcing that act shall be final and not subject to court review.

Kitchener's Will Filed.

London, June 30.—The will of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, the British secretary of war, who lost his life in the sinking of the cruiser Hampshire, admitted to probate today shows he left an estate valued at approximately $500,000.

Missouri Troops Start.

Nevada, Mo., June 30.—The first section of the First infantry regiment of St. Louis left here at 5:25 o'clock this afternoon for the Missouri Pacific for Laredo, Texas. The second section was scheduled to leave an hour later. This regiment is the first unit of the Missouri national guard to train for the border.

Columbus Raiders Hanged.

Deming, N. M., June 30.—Four Villa followers who took part in the Columbus raid were executed by hanging in the county jail here today.

Thoughtful Women Give Stamped Post Cards to Troops

Several Waco women yesterday conceived an idea that was put into execution, much to the delight of some of the thousands of National Guardsmen from the North and East who are passing through this city almost constantly now. Going down to view some of the troop trains, the women found that many of the soldier boys were very anxious to write home, but that the stops had been so short that they had been unable to procure stamps and paper. The women immediately purchased a quantity of stamps and post cards of Waco scenes and waited for the next train to arrive.

So far as known, this is the first work of this kind. Red Cross societies along the routes, at Fort Worth, for instance, are serving the troops chocolate and other light refreshments as they stop for a few minutes.

When the two trains carrying the Seventh infantry, New York, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, the boys were given fifteen minutes to come up town and for the short time the streets were almost flooded with the soldiers hunting cafes and fruit stands. Accompanying this regiment was a war correspondent of the New York Sun.

Holding Americans' Gold.

Washington, June 30.—The state department was officially advised today that gold and silver bullion belonging to Americans and seized by local Mexican authorities at Manzanillo totaled nearly $500,000. The seizures were reported to have begun before the Carranza incident. A protest already has been made to General Carranza.

WOMEN ARE LOSING FEAR OF TELEGRAMS

NIGHT LETTERS ON BREAK-FAST TABLES DAILY.

12,000,000 SENT IN A YEAR

Enormous Growth of This Service Has Aided in Company's Increased Income.

(New York Times.)

Western Union Telegraph company reflected in the steady advance of its stock, predicated upon an increase in
net income for the last quarter of 80
per cent, over the same quarter in 1915,
no small part has been played by the
avidity with which the American public has seized upon the use of the night
letter for both business and social communication. While there is also a large use of the day letter, its use had
not approximated the use of the night
letter, which can be sent up to 2 o'clock in the morning from any part of the United States to any other part
to be delivered at breakfast time.

Six years ago there were no night
letters. Tonight, unless some catastrophic destroys the Western Union system, its lines will carry approximately 40,000 night letters of fifty words or less. There will be about two-thirds that number of day letters sent. Of the 100,000,000 messages a year sent over the Western Union lines, 12,000,
000 are night letters, illustrating the remarkable growth of this auxiliary to
the telegraph service. About $800,000
of day letters are sent annually. This growth has taken place in the case of the night letters since 1910, and in the case of the day letters since 1912. The increase in the last year has been about 25 per cent, and the company expects a like increase in the ensuing year.

12,000,000 NIGHT
LETTERS A YEAR.

The night letter was started by the Western Union in 1910 because it wished to make some use of its great facilities lying idle at night. It was decided to make the experiment of sending its patrons the opportunity to send fifty words at night for the cost of a
ten-word day message, to be delivered
at the start of business the next day.
The idea took from the start. Business men found they could send to their traveling salesmen at the close of the day's business important information
which their men would have at the start of the next day's business quicker
than a letter, by days in some cases,
and much cheaper than the day letter messages. Then the man away from home began to send his wife a night
letter, which she read at breakfast the next morning. Business houses began
to send appeals to customers by the night letter. Then the Western Union went after the business in earnest and
annually.

There is a lot of psychology about
the night letter. In the first place, the Western Union figured that the business man who sat down in front of his pile of mail in the morning would give his first attention to the telegrams. This belief was communicated to other business men, and the business men found it was good logic. Now the use of the night letter has been developed until it is used for urging payment on accounts; used by politicians in the business of getting votes;
used to ask contributions to war relief
funds; used for placing business orders, and for a myriad other uses. It is a part of the American business
system.

When it came to the social use of the night letter, it was found that the psychology of the telegram was again a factor. It had long been the custom
for the woman who received a telegram
to handle it with the fire tongs and to pray a few moments that the news was
not so bad as it might be before she opened it. For telegrams formerly were used in emergencies socially and the dread and fear of telegrams had to be overcome. This has been in a large degree achieved, and now wives and husbands who send separate telegrams
of thousands of telegrams every year,
which wife or husband reads at breakfast and learns how the other half of the family fares.

WOMEN'S FEAR OF TELEGRAMS.

But the old-time fear of the telegram
has not been altogether overcome by
the night letter. Only this month, when
the nationwide use of the night letter
was suggested in connection with the celebration of Mothers' Day on May 14,
by which sons and daughters could
send words of cheer to the "old folks
at home," it was suggested that the mothers would receive a fear along with the telegram which would counteract the words of cheer they would read when they opened it. It was at first suggested that special envelopes
be used which would bear the words,
"This is a Mothers' Day Telegram."
The discarded because it was expensive. Special Mothers' Day blankets were furnished, and the rest of the problem was solved by instructing all messenger boys delivering such messages to say to the recipient,
"Madam, this is a Mothers' Day message." Telegraph officials hope even this precaution will not be necessary
in a year or two.

Telegraph officials believe that the business and social possibilities of the telegram have only been tapped. They believe there will be more new uses
and greater applications of the service. As the night letter was inaugurated in 1910 to supply a use for facilities at night, the day letter was started to use the "valleys" in the service facilities. There are "peaks" in the business at 10 o'clock in the morning,
at noon, and at the closing of business
around 4:30 o'clock. Between the
"peaks" are "valleys." The day letter
of fifty words is sent during the "valley" period of business that follows the regular business messages. The charge
is one-and-a-half times that of the night letter.

The night message is sent ahead of the night letter and behind the regular message. It is charged at the ten-
word rate, as a regular message is,
only at about two-thirds of the rate of the regular message.

MODERN
CABLE SERVICE.

The Western Union also has installed
modifications of cable service which correspond closely to modifications in the land wire service. In addition to the fast regular cables there is the deferred half-rate service sent along when
the regular messages do not keep the fa-

THURSDAY AUCTION BRIDGE HAS LAST GAME

A pleasant party to characterize the wining of the club season was the meeting of the Thursday Auction Bridge club with Mrs. John F. Wright.
Four members are on their summer
trips which reduced the game to only
two tables.
Mrs. Forest Goodman received the club plate. Mrs. Edward Laughlin, consolation, stationery. Daisies and flowers added to the beauty of this artistic home. A cooling summer salad and ice brought to a pleasant finish the last game of the season for the Thursday Auction Bridge club.

BEAUTIFUL LUNCHEON GIVEN FOR MRS. J. P. SAMPLE

Mrs. J. P. Sample has been the recipient of many pretty affairs from numerous friends since the news of her removal from their midst. The last was on Thursday when Mrs. Sample
was the center of a charming group
of Waco matrons at a luncheon given
in her honor by Mrs. Dorothy Mc-Culloch at her home on Second avenue. The table was daintily with its snowy linens and shining with the attractive service. Shasta daisies in crystal bowls added charm to the occasion and the menu consisted of
"summery" dishes suitable to the weather. Covers were laid for the hostess
and honoree and Mrs. Grace Wiley, Mrs. J. H. Mackey, Mrs. E. C. Nettles, Mrs. Thomas L. McCulloch, Mrs. William Green.

ACTIVITIES OF THE HUACO CLUB

Plans are under way for a glorious Fourth at the Huaco club. Mrs.
Hal Moody has accepted the chairmanship of a committee of ladies to assist in the furthering of plans for next Tuesday.

Invitations are being sent to all members of the club, which tell of the many attractions for the day. First,
there will be a mixed foursome beginning at 2 o'clock in the afternoon with prizes for both men and women. At 4 o'clock a bridge party for all ladies
of the club is planned, with prizes.

Later there will be a ladies' putting
match on the green just in front of the club house with prize features, and at 7:30 a cafeteria supper will be enjoyed by all members of the club.
Games and socializing will follow. A journey will be made to the dancing
hall with specialties in dancing introduced. Fireworks will close this auspicious occasion. Mrs. Moody makes urgent request that all ladies of the club desirous of reserving tables for bridge, notify Mrs. Turner Hubby or
Mrs. Irwin Colgin at once.

PIANO RECITAL OF TWO YOUNG MUSICIANS

At the colonial McCulloch home on North Fourth street, on the wide veranda where the piano was placed, occurred the recital of two of Mrs. C. C.
McCulloch's pupils, Miss Mary Barnett
and Miss Virginia West, assisted by Misses Jessie Jackson and Francis
Grider, pupils of Mrs. Sara McCulloch
Ferguson.

These young ladies acquitted themselves with honor and rendered a program both difficult and varied. At the conclusion of the program Mrs. McCulloch was prevailed upon to give several numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hind with mandolin and guitar and Miss Grader Ferguson on Ukulele, a Hawaiian instrument, delighted the audience with the sweet sound of Mrs. McCulloch's piano. During the sixties, when Prof. E. W. Krause was called to the front, he left a fine musical legacy to Miss Virginia West, who is now in charge of the Methodist female college.
She has also the distinction of being the first musical director of Baylor university. And still she remains a devoted pupil of Mrs. McCulloch. With her touch has grown sweeter with the
years. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Rondthaler
welcomed the guests and dispensed the
hospitalities of the evening.

MRS. A. J. DOSSETT AT HOME FOR HER DAUGHTER

A very lovely hospitality of the week
was that of Thursday afternoon when Mrs. A. J. Dossett complimented her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Dossett and Miss Anna Virginia Williams, Meridian, Miss, the very charming visitor of Miss Elizabeth Culver. This was all informality and was to afford ilities busy. Then there is the cable service letter, based on a thirteen-word rate, and the week-end letter service, which is based on a 25-word basis.

These messages are filed at any time
up to midnight Saturday night for delivery in any part of the world the following Monday morning. The money transfer service, the marine service, the messenger service, the commercial news service and the time service, among other manifestations by which the Western Union has made its service fit the requirements of business and of the public.

Newcomb Carlton president of the Western Union, said that the success of the night letter illustrated good business methods.

"We have telegraph service to sell,"
he said. "It was the same proposition
as having any other business commodity to sell. We have but it in attractive packages. That's the explanation."

leged to pleasure. Remaining through the hours were Mrs. F. A. Culver, Mrs.
R. G. Patton and Mrs. A. E. Weyland,
while the friends of Miss Dossett did
duty as assistant hostesses. Miss Ale-

This was one of the pretty affairs of the week with a delightful hostess and charming honoree.

NIGHT LETTERS ON BREAK-FAST TABLES DAILY.

Enormous Growth of This Service Has Aided in Company's Increased Income.

(New York Times.)

Western Union Telegraph company reflected in the steady advance of its
stock, predicated upon an increase in
net income for the last quarter of 80
per cent, over the same quarter in 1915,
no small part has been played by the
avidity with which the American public has seized upon the use of the night
letter for both business and social
large use of the day letter, its use had
not approximated the use of the night
letter, which can be sent up to 2
o'clock in the morning from any part
of the United States to any other part
to be delivered at breakfast time.

Six years ago there were no night
letters. Tonight, unless some catastrophe destroys the Western Union system, its lines will carry approximately 40,000 night letters of fifty words or less. There will be about two-thirds that number of day letters sent. Of the 100,000,000 messages a year sent
over the Western Union lines, 12,000-000 are night letters, illustrating the
remarkable growth of this auxiliary to
the telegraph service. About 5,000,000
day letters are sent annually. This growth has taken place in the case of
case of the day letters since 1912. The increase in the last year has been 25 per cent, and the company expects a like increase in the ensuing year.

LETTERS A YEAR.

The night letter was started by the Western Union in 1910 because it
wished to make some use of its great
facilities lying idle at night. It was decided to make the experiment of giving its patrons the opportunity to send
fifty words at night for the cost of a
ten-word day message, to be delivered
at the start of business the next day.
The idea took from the start. Business men found they could send their traveling salesmen at the close of the
day's business, important information
which their men would have at the start of the next day's business quicker
than a letter, by days in some cases,
and much cheaper than the rate of day
messages. Then the man away from
home began to send his wife a night
letter, which she read at breakfast the
next morning. Business houses began
to send appeals to customers by the
night letter. Then the Western Union
went after the business in earnest and
annually.

There is a lot of psychology about
the night letter. In the first place, the Western Union discovered that the business man who sat down in front of his pile of mail in the morning would give his first attention to the telegrams.
This belief was communicated to other business men, and the business man found it was good logic. Now the use of the right letter has been developed until it is used for urging
payment on accounts; used by politicians in the business of getting votes;
used to ask for contributions toward
funds; used for placing business or-
is a part of the American business
system.

When it came to the social use of the
night letter, it was found that the psychology of the telegram was again a
factor. It had long been the custom
for the woman who received a telegram
to handle it with the fire tongs and to
not so bad as it might be before she
used in emergencies socially, and the
dread and fear of telegrams had to be overcome. This has been in a large sense achieved, and now wives and husbands who are separated send tens
of thousands of telegrams every year,
which wife or husband reads at breakfast and learns how the other half of
the family fares.

WOMEN'S FEAR OF TELEGRAMS.

But the old-time fear of the telegram
has not been altogether overcome by
the night letter. Only this month, when
the nationwide use of the night letter
was suggested in connection with the
celebration of Mothers' Day on May 14,
by which sons and daughters could
send words of cheer to the "old folks
at home," it was suggested that the mothers would receive a few along
with the telegram which would counteract the words of cheer they would
read when they opened it. It was at first suggested that special envelopes
be used which would bear the words,
"This is a Mothers' Day Telegram."
This was discarded because it was too expensive. Special Mothers' Day blanks were furnished, and the rest of the problem was solved by instructing
all messengers to deliver mothers' day
messages to say to the recipient,
"Madam, this is a Mothers' Day message." Telegraph officials hope even
this precaution will not be necessary
in a year or two.

business and social possibilities of the telegram have only been tapped. They
and greater applications of the service. As the night letter was inaugurated in 1910 to supply a use for facilities at night, the day letter was started to use the "valleys" in the service facilities. There are "peaks" in the business at 10 o'clock in the morning,
at noon, and at the closing of business
around 4:30 o'clock. Between the
"peaks" are "valleys." The day letter
of fifty words is sent during the "valley" period of business that follows the
is one-and-a-half times that of the night letter.

The night message is sent ahead of
the night letter and behind the regular
message. It is charged at the ten-
word rate, as a regular message is
only at about two-thirds of the rate of
the regular message.

MODERN CABLE SERVICE.

The Western Union also has installed
correspond closely to modifications in the land wire service. In addition to the fast regular cables there is the deferred half-rate service sent along when

THURSDAY AUCTION BRIDGE HAS LAST GAME

A pleasant party to characterize the winding of the club season was the
Bridge club with Mrs. John P. Wright.
Four members are on their summer
trips which reduced the game to only
two tables.

Mrs. Forest Goodman received the
club plate. Mrs. Edward Laughlin, consolation, stationery. Daisies and ferns added to the beauty of this artistic home. A cooling summer salad
and ice brought to a pleasant finish
the last game of the season for the

BEAUTIFUL LUNCHEON GIVEN FOR MRS. J. P. SAMPLE

Mrs. J. P. Sample has been the recipient of many pretty affairs from her numerous friends since the news of her removal from their midst. The last
was on Thursday when Mrs. Sample
was the center of a charming group
of Waco matrons at a luncheon given
in her honor by Mrs. Dorothy Mc-Cutchan at her home on Concord avenue. The table was daintily with its snowy linens and shining with the attractive service. Shasta daisies in crystal bowls added charm to the occasion and the menu consisted of
"summery" dishes suitable to the weather. Covers were laid for the hostess
and honoree and Mrs. Grace Wigley, Mrs. J. H. Mackey, Mrs. B. C. Nettles, Mrs. Thomas L. McCullough, Mrs. William Green.

ACTIVITIES OF THE HUACO CLUB

Plans are under way for a glorious Fourth at the Huaco club. Mrs.
Hal Moody has accepted the chairmanship of a committee of ladies to as-ist in the furthering of plans for next Tuesday, the fourth.

Invitations are being sent to all members of the club, which tell of the
many attractions for the day. First,
there will be a mixed foursome begin-
ning at 2 o'clock in the afternoon with
prizes for both men and women. At 4 o'clock a bridge party for all ladies
of the club is planned, with prizes.
Later there will be a ladies' putting
match on the green just in front of the
club house with prize features, and at 7:30 a cafeteria supper will be enjoyed by all members of the club.
Games and cafeteria supper over adjournment will be made to the dancing
hall with specialties in dancing introduced. Fireworks will close this auspicious occasion. Mrs. Moody makes urgent request that all ladies of the
club desirous of reserving tables for
Mrs. Irwin Colgin at once.

At the colonial McCulloch home on North Fourth street, on the wide veranda where the piano was placed, occurred the recital of two Mrs. C. C.
McCulloch's pupils, Miss Mary Barnett
and Miss Virginia West, assisted by Misses Jessie Jackson and Francis
Grider, pupils of Mrs. Sara McCulloch
Ferguson. These young ladies acquired their education with honor and
varied. At the conclusion of the program Mrs. McCulloch was prevailed upon to give several numbers, while Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hild with mandolin and guitar and Miss Grader Per-
guson on Ukulele, a Hawaiian instrument, delighted the audience with the concord of sweet sound. Mrs. C. C.
McCulloch is one of Waco's gifted musicians. During the sixties, when
in charge at the Methodist Female college. She has also the distinction of being the first musical director of Baylor university. Her piano remains a talented musician whose
years. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Rondthaler
welcomed the guests and dispensed the

MRS. A. J. DOSSETT AT HOME FOR HER DAUGHTER

A very lovely hospitality of the week

Orphans Will Render Program at Herring Ave. Church Sunday

A special program has been prepared by the children of the Orphans'
home and will be rendered tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at the Herring Avenue Methodist church. A similar program was given by them last year and was enjoyed by all. You are most cordially invited to be present next Sunday morning and encourage the children. We can promise you a profitable time and a spiritual uplift. The children will greatly appreciate your presence.

J. J. Embrey Home Destroyed by Fire

The residence of J. J. Embrey, located at Thirty-fifth and Jefferson streets, was destroyed by fire at 3:30 yesterday afternoon.

The house was on total loss, and only a part of the furniture was saved. The residence was a beautiful two-story and was about the first house built in the Huaco Heights addition to Waco.
It was built by T. Brooks Pearson, but
Mr. Pearson afterward sold the place.
The blaze caught in the roof, and it spread rapidly, and by midnight with the blaze after it got under headway.
The insurance was only partial, and
Mr. Embrey, who is at the Herlick Hardware company, will sustain a considerable loss.

Miss Dossett of her mother, before her return to the National Cathedral school of Washington in the fall, and to pay a courtesy to Miss Williams, whose family in Mississippi is closely bound to the hostess in friendship's ties. Only married friends were privileged to the pleasure. Remained through the hours were Mrs. F. A. Culver, Mrs.
R. G. Patton and Mrs. A. E. Weymouth,
while the friends of Miss Dossett did
duty as assistant hostesses. Miss Alethea Sleeper very cordially extended first greeting to Miss Elizabeth Patton, Elizabeth Culver, Flora Lee Mc-Cullough and Virginia Shumate of Dallas passed the cooling punch, assisted by little Misses Anna Culver, Nancy Culver and Elizabeth Clark. Miss Hester Foster and Miss Nell Grand presided over the punch bowl. Through the thoughtfulness of friends the house was adorned with fresh cut flowers—daisies as typical of sweet girlhood, were banked in living room where the guests were received. Bright spotted lilies and zinnias in their luxurious coloring gave a pretty effect for hall-while the pink gladioli with its delicate tints adorned the dining room.
This was one of the pretty affairs of
charming honorees.

Society Notes

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Kelly spent last week very pleasantly in Navasota.
This took the form of a family reunion with Mr. Kelly since there were assembled the three brothers and one sister, together with their families. On their return they brought with them
Judge George Kelly and his daughter, Miss Hallie Kelly of Wharton. They returned home on yesterday.

Cards from Mrs. G. J. Rousseau leave her visiting her father and mother, Dr.
and Mrs. F. C. McConnell, in Atlanta, Ga. She goes to the mountains of Tennessee.

The first of July finds Miss Lucille Wynne and her sister, Miss Amelia Wynne, leaving for New York City, where they will be for four weeks.
Later they go to Long Island to join a house party of relatives and friends.
They will also visit other points of interest en route home.

Among the Massachusetts troops coming to Texas is Capt. Chas. A.
Ramlett of Belterica, Mass., a cousin of Mr. and Mrs. William Lambdin.

Among the many pleasant home parties formed this summer is mentioned Miss Mildred Lastinger of Terrace row, who has for her guests Misses Aletha May Curry, Marguerite Rodgers and Kathryn Dupuy, all of Marlin,
with Miss Daisy Brown of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Lyon of North Carolina arrived in Waco on Thursday from California and are at the Raleigh.
They are most cordially greeted by their Waco friends.

Society Personals

Mrs. J. P. Sample goes to Marlin and Mrs. H. L. Hild stay in Waco, leaving for her permanent residence in Kansas.

Misses Bird and Fay Hoffmann with their mother, Mrs. W. H. Hoffmann, will visit in Marlin on Saturday.

Mrs. W. L. Millett has been absent from the city this past week.
Mrs. S. H. McCartney of Reno, Nev., arrives in Waco today from Detroit, Mich., where she has been for the past three weeks. She will be the guest of Mrs. McCartney and also Mrs. Henry McGhee of Brook avenue.

Misses Mary and Ruth Wilson left
on Monday to visit their sister, Mrs.
E. S. Wilson, in Arkansas.

Mrs. Sallie Flournoy has returned from an extended absence in Sherman.
She is again with her daughter, Mrs.
Tarleton Taylor.

Miss Grace Downs is at home from several weeks' absence in China Springs. She was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Lena Kennedy.

Miss Jacqueline Adams of Dallas is with her aunt, Mrs. John Wright, for a few days.

Miss Ruth Hubby is expected home on Tuesday. She brings as her guest Miss Hill of Weatherford.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Rumsey of Port Worth were passing guests of Judge and Mrs. T. F. Bryan, Herring avenue, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Miestrol are in their own home near Eighteenth and Rose Park.

Mrs. Hare of Dallas is with her aunt,
Mrs. J. M. Gilles, for a short visit.

Mrs. W. P. Concoe of St. Louis, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. M. D. Stonehocker of 2504 North
Fifteenth street, the past week left Tuesday to visit her other daughter, Mrs. R. S. Trigg and Mrs. C. A. Woolford Jr. of Dallas, before departing for Europe to join her son, who was appointed foreign auditor for the Welles-Meridian, Miss., the very charming
visitor of Miss Elizabeth Culver. This

Waco Boy Saves a Companion from Drowning

Gilbert Overby, the 13-year-old son of the late E. C. (Dutch) Overby, resued a companion from drowning in the Bosque Thursday afternoon, the deed being one which showed the mettle of young Overby to be of the right kind.

The companion was Roy Whiteman, aged 8, the incident happening near Walkers Crossing on the Bosque. Several parties are camped on the Bosque, among these being Mr. and Mrs.
T. D. Whiteman, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Spencer,
Mr. and Mrs. John R. Spencer Jr.
and Gilbert Overby. The men were not at the camp, and the others were in bathing when the little Whiteman boy got beyond his depth, sinking the second time before Gilbert could reach him, and Gilbert had to drag Roy while both of them were under the water and they could find no shallow place.
They were both gasping for breath
when they found the shallow water.
Naturally, Gilbert was the hero of the day, and he is still that.

June Building Permits Show Up Very Well

The building permits for June totaled $57,290, which is considered an excellent showing, all things considered. This is more than double the permits for May of this year, the permits that month totaling $28,915.

Building Inspector S. P. Herbert thinks that the June permits would have made even a better showing had the people applied for permits as they should, and he estimates that a great deal of work is under way for which no permit was ever issued.

GAINESVILLE-WACO RAILROAD LINE CLAIMS ATTENTION

Press dispatches convey the information that two New York men, Messrs. Stratton and Pressey, accompanied by F. H. Sherwood, banker, of Gainesville, and Secretary B. F. Johnson of the Gainesville Chamber of Commerce, are on their way to Waco, via Bridgeport, Weatherford and other points, for the purpose of inspecting the proposed road to Waco from Gainesville. It is declared in Gainesville that the outlook for building this road is excellent, and business men
there are greatly encouraged.

It was stated in these columns two weeks ago that there was something doing on this proposition, and as a matter of fact right of way and business have been secured as far down as Bridgeport. A horseback survey has been made from there to Weatherford, and prospects for the line seem excellent.

The road was chartered at Austin
about four months ago, the men filing
the charter paying down about $15,000, according to estimates at the time. It is declared that some splendid country would be opened up by this line.

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY WACO, TEXAS

Home people have a chance to develop a home institution. It is owned by the Baptists of Texas, but is democratic in its treatment of its students. Every student is helped to see the truth of life as taught in the books and nature by the best teachers available. Graduates of the Waco high school are admitted to the Freshman class. They can live at home and get collegiate advantages that some students come a thousand miles to obtain. Boys and girls who have failed in the high school because they would not work or because their parents have allowed them to frolic around, should not come to Baylor. If they do, they won't like the institution. Baylor is a place for workers. Its curriculum for graduation is as high as the best institution in the state. This can be verified by any

THE HOUR FOR ACTION.

If Carranza expected by the surrender of the soldiers captured at Carrizal to stop the troop movements toward the border he will be greatly disappointed. The Carrizal battle will certainly be repeated if he persists in the orders he has given for attack upon Americans going in any direction except northward. And when it is repeated, there will be no further correspondence on the subject.

The Mexican leaders are infatuated with the idea that they can indefinitely prolong an intolerable situation by a show of braggadocio which counts for much in their dealings with each other, and by shilly-shallying about small matters. If they were further indulged, they could easily find material for diplomatic exchanges that would last for years. That is their favorite method of procedure—to keep parleying until an adversary is ready to concede everything.

There is no occasion for further dispute with Carranza. The time has come for action. Mexico is a continuing menace to the peace of the western world. Carranza has shown his incapacity to lead it into the paths of peace and order. Either we must go forward, or backward. The time has come to disclaim all responsibility, or to discharge our responsibility. The former course would invite the contempt of the whole civilized world.

The Mexican border states have a population of 1,700,000, and the American border states have a population of 6,800,000. The disparity in wealth is much greater than in population. When it is considered that Texas would be in the condition of Chihuahua today, if it had not set up in business for itself, the duty our government owes to mankind and to the cause of civilization becomes apparent.

The Houston Post says, "Everybody seems to be convinced that something is wrong about it (referring to court proceedings) and that something must be done to correct its defects." Yes, everybody is agreed, and yet the legislature will do nothing about it unless the people go after the candidates with a stuffed club before they are elected.

It is estimated that there are 25,000,000 males of military age in this country, which is about double the population of Mexico. New York and San Francisco will not lose much sleep over the threats of Mexican generals to loot them.

As the struggle proceeds, it becomes more apparent every day that Dr. Brooks is the only candidate for senator upon whom all can cheerfully unite. That is one of the reasons why he will be the first man in both primaries—if a second should be needed. If The Colonel wants to become a high private, the road is straight, and the terms easy.

If Mr. Henry has any further testimony to submit touching the eligibility of any candidate for senator, the country is ready for him.

Elimination is in the air, and the question is, who will be the eliminator and who the eliminated? Culberson, Colquitt, Henry—are you still there?

There will be no trouble about getting money to market the coming cotton crop. The trouble will be in finding the cotton to match the money.

Corpus Christi is building an eleven-mile interurban line to the mouth of Corpus Christi bay. The renaissance of business activity is near at hand all over Texas.

That story on Arkansas to the effect that the hens are laying hard-boiled eggs is probably exaggerated, but many a cafe patron has no doubt wished that it were a literal truth.

Candidate Colquitt is not having much to say about what Governor Ferguson says about his administration, but he is doing some thinking that could not be correctly translated without the use of branding irons.

Dr. Frank Crane promulgates fourteen rules on "how to eat." Number eleven begins, "Take no alcoholic beverage." It is fair to assume that Dr. Crane is a submissionist, also a prohibitionist.

Appeal Filed For Casement

London, June 30.—The appeal filed in the case of Sir Roger Casement had just three reasons for setting aside the verdict of guilty of high treason found against him under which he was sentenced to death, as follows:

"1. That no crime had been committed under the statute of Edward III, by which Sir Roger was tried, because no such crime as treason 'without the realm' was indicated in the statute.

"2. That the lord chief justice erred in the use of the term, 'Aiding and comforting the enemy'.

"3. Because the lord chief justice in his charge to the jury did not properly set forth the defendant's side of the case."

Sir Roger was transferred to Pentonville prison. Appeal probably will be heard within three weeks.

The home office today stated that the king had directed that Sir Roger be degraded from his order of knighthood.

Wm. James Wishes to Take Oath of Allegiance to U. S.

Fort Worth, Tex., June 30.—Capt. William James, first cousin of Jesse and Frank James and the last of the original family, wants to take the oath of allegiance to the United States and fight in Mexico. He has applied to United States District Attorney Wilson to know what procedure is necessary. He has refused to take the oath since the civil war when he was a member of Quantrill's band. He was never an outlaw. James lives here.

DRILLING FOR OIL STARTED IN MARLIN

LOCAL COMPANY IN HOT WATER CITY WILL CONDUCT OPERATIONS.

Rev. W. F. Bryan Announces Special Fourth of July Services in the Methodist Church.

Marlin, June 30.—The oil fever has struck certain Marlin men and drilling is about to be started on the west side of the river near Deer creek on the H. B. Stallworth farm, under the auspices of a local company. The property on which drilling is being done has long been the object of much interest to oil and gas experts visiting this section on account of the indications said to exist in that vicinity of a deposit of some kind.

The drilling is being done by M. D. Lyman, who brought his outfit here from the Corsicana fields, where he has been operating for some time past.

Dr. J. W. Torbett left for Nashville, Tenn., yesterday on receipt of a telegram that his brother, Dr. B. M. Torbett, was worse. His brother has been suffering with typhoid fever since the Vanderbilt commencement exercises.

Mrs. N. C. Edwards has returned from an extended visit to relatives at Groveton and Bishop.

Rev. W. F. Bryan has announced special Fourth of July services to be held at the Methodist church Sunday night, when the high school band directed by Anton Ernst will play and flags will be handed out as souvenirs.

Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Bryan entertained at the parsonage on Chambers street last night in honor of the Epworth League and young people of the Methodist Sunday school.

Austin, Tex., June 30.—Land sales and leases as reported today by State Treasurer Edwards for the month of June shows a total of $115,370.96 of which $61,950.79 was deposited to the credit of the various available funds, and $53,420.17 to the credit of the permanent funds. Of the available funds $61,537.54 went to the available funds and of the permanent funds, $41,797.22 went to the permanent school fund.

Robinson at Mart. Mart, June 30.—John D. Robinson, candidate for congress, eleventh district, spoke here last night to a fair sized audience, and was given close attention.

I. & G. N. Picnic. Mart, June 30.—On a special train, leaving here at 7:30 a. m., the employees of the International and Great Northern railroad left here for Day's Lake, some ten miles east of Waco, for their annual picnic. With baskets well filled and children all happy, the employees and their host of friends, some two hundred strong, are luxuriating in care freedom and in good fellowship.

Producers Oil Co. Declares Dividend of Six Million

New York, June 30.—The Producers Oil company of Houston, a subsidiary of the Texas Company, today declared a cash dividend of $6,000,000 or 200 per cent of its capitalization. The dividend will go to shareholders of the Texas Company.

Iowa Prohibition Law Is Upheld

Des Moines, Iowa, June 30.—The United States supreme court today upheld the Iowa prohibition law which closed saloons in Iowa January 1, 1916, is valid and constitutional, according to a unanimous decision today of the Iowa state supreme court.

Federal Inquiry or Railroad Strike?

Faced by demands from the conductors, engineers, firemen and brakemen that would impose on the country an additional burden in transportation costs of $100,000,000 a year, the railroads propose that this wage problem be settled by reference to an impartial Federal tribunal.

With these employees, whose efficient service is acknowledged, the railroads have no differences that could not be considered fairly and decided justly by such a public body.

Railroads Urge Public Inquiry and Arbitration

The formal proposal of the railroads to the employees for the settlement of the controversy is as follows:

"Our conferences have demonstrated that we cannot harmonize our differences of opinion, and that eventually the matters in controversy must be passed upon by other and disinterested agencies. Therefore, we propose that your proposals and the proposition of the railroads be disposed of by one or the other of the following methods:

1. Preferably by submission to the Interstate Commerce Commission, the only tribunal which, by reason of its accumulated information bearing on railway conditions and its control of the revenue of the railways, is in a position to consider and protect the rights and equities of all the interests affected, and to provide additional revenue necessary to meet the added cost of operation in case your proposals are found by the Commission to be just and reasonable; or, in the event the Interstate Commerce Commission cannot, under existing laws, act in the premises, that we jointly request Congress to take such action as may be necessary to enable the Commission to consider and promptly dispose of the questions involved; or

2. By arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Federal law" (The Newlands Act).

Leaders Refuse Offer and Take Strike Vote

Leaders of the train service brotherhoods, at the joint conference held in New York, June 1-15, refused the offer of the railroads to submit the issue to arbitration or Federal review, and the employees are now voting on the question whether authority shall be given these leaders to declare a nation-wide strike.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is proposed by the railroads as the public body to which this issue ought to be referred for these reasons:

No other body with such an intimate knowledge of railroad conditions has such an unquestioned position in the public confidence.

The rates the railroads may charge the public for transportation are now largely fixed by this Government board.

Out of every dollar received by the railroads from the public nearly one-half is paid directly to the employees as wages; and the money to pay increased wages can come from no other source than the rates paid by the public.

The Interstate Commerce Commission, with its control over rates, is in a position to make a complete investigation and render such decision as would protect the interests of the railroad employees, the owners of the railroads, and the public.

A Question For the Public to Decide

The railroads feel that they have no right to grant a wage preferment of $100,000,000 a year to these employees, now highly paid and constituting only one-fifth of all the employees, without a clear mandate from a public tribunal that shall determine the merits of the case after a review of all the facts.

The single issue before the country is whether this controversy is to be settled by an impartial Government inquiry or by industrial warfare.

DAILY SHORT STORY.

A Medical Treatise.

By J. B. C. Young.

(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

The little nurse was coming down the hallway with a tray for her patient, and in room 14. It was about four o'clock, and, of course, Mac Thompson was standing somewhere near, with his hands in his pockets and his hat on the back of his head, waiting for her. Beside him stood Billy Fields, who immediately brought his heels together and bowed profoundly when he saw her coming.

"Hello, Miss Arthur," said Mac, with a most ingratiating smile. Bill swept the floor in another graceful salutation. "How do you do?" said the little nurse. "Allow me," said Mac, as he pushed open the door.

"Thank you, Mr. Thompson." And she whisked past him into the room. "Didn't she do that nicely?" growled Mac. "And here I have waited a perfectly good fifteen minutes to see her, and she knows it, too."

"Don't be discouraged, Charlie, try again. Coming to classmeeting? No? Well I'm off." Bill disappeared down the hall, and Mac sauntered up and down and waited for his tormentor to reappear.

Out she whisked and was proceeding to pass him with another sweet and preoccupied smile when he caught her apron.

"No, you don't, fair lady."

"Let me go this instant, Mac. Let me go my apron. I just wish you medical students wouldn't come bothering me when I'm busy."

"Hey? Plural? Which ones have been bothering you? Give me their names. I'll see to them directly. I'm the only medical student licensed to bother you." Mac took out his note book and pen with a flourish and looked at her in a business-like way.

She had to laugh. "Mac, you ridiculous thing, you'll never be sensible. But, seriously now, you are interrupting me in my work. I wish you would go away."

She screwed her face up into a frown. "I've got my orders. Farewell, cruel young woman." And then he turned right about and walked stiffly down the hall.

Miss Arthur was so startled at his move that she watched him in silence. She had not recovered from her surprise when he reached the door. Then he turned around with a grin and kissed his hand to her. She wheeled, angered with herself for watching him, and swept off with a fierce little frown which had turned into a smile by the time she had reached her destination. This happened to be the window. She stood in the shadow of the curtain and watched him depart. He looked up, but the little nurse was careful this time that she was not caught napping.

"What a boy!" she said scornfully, with a smile at the corner of her mouth. For the next week, the boy merely waved his hand at her from a distance, and when no one was about he threw a kiss. A week of that brought the little nurse into a white heat of rage, and when he suddenly popped into speaking distance with her one day she lost no time in telling him her mind.

"Go right away, I don't like you," she snapped at him, and she moved away with a red face, conscious that he was grinning a little. "Abominable tease!" she scolded. How she longed to shake him, as she watched him cross the street from the hospital that night. Strange how she watched for him every night.

"Hello, honey!" he said next night, when she came out of room 16 with her arms full.

She had just been thinking of him, and she looked up with a smile that was too brilliant to be anything but genuine. Mac's face lost its bantering look and he stooped and kissed the upturned face.

"You darling!" he said huskily. But the little nurse was petrified with horror. Had he thought she was glad to see him? Did he dare to think she had wanted to see him?

"Oh, how dare you? I—I—" Her thoughts trailed off into nothingness, and she made her escape into her room and had a good weep for very rage. "How dare he? Horrid thing! He took advantage! I'll never, never, never—" But she did not say what she would never do. After a brief black silence, she put her head up high and went on with her work.

For two days, she refused to look at Mac, who kept glancing sideways at her with a rather subdued air. His step was not so jaunty when he left the hospital. The little nurse noticed that when she peered out at him from behind the curtain the third day. There was some satisfaction in that. But it was getting tiresome, this not speaking to Mac. And after all, perhaps—well, perhaps she had been too severe. She hated to give in, but being angry was very wearing. Pride was rather tiresome, especially when she wanted to be friends with Mac.

"Miss Arthur," Mac was standing before her in the doorway when she came out of a room next evening. There was a grim determination in his face, and the little nurse got panicky. Oh, for anything to stave this reckoning off!

"Oh, no! Oh, no! she stammered, and would have fled. He turned quickly, and caught at his finger in the doorjamb. "Jove!" he muttered forcefully, as he rescued his hand and examined it. It pained him considerably, and his face was drawn up in a half whistle. It would have been relief to let out a whoop but one had to be quiet in a hospital. Consequently he merely made an awful face, which considerably frightened the little nurse.

"Oh, Mac, I've hurt you! How did I do it? Do let me see it, please do!"

New Mac, naturally a wily young man, saw his advantage at once, and drew his face up into a still more execrating scowl.

"Jove!" he said again, pretending that the pain made him oblivious of her presence.

"Oh, Mac, do let me see it. I'll handle it. I'm a doctor, Mac, dear." The little nurse was so truly distressed that she did not care what she said.

"Not out here, come on into this empty room. Jove, but it pains! Are you very sorry?"

"Oh, yes, so sorry!"

"Shame!" thought Mac to himself, "but it's got to be done!" He raised a pained face to her sorrow-stricken one. "Would you be sorry if my hand had to be amputated?"

"Oh, Mac!" And she buried her head on his arm in tears.

"Would you marry a man with only one hand?"

The little nurse nodded her head, choking with sobs, and Mac cheerfully grinned over her head and winked his eye at the window.

"Oh, but you would rather have a good article than a damaged one,"

"Then it's all right, girl, for I didn't hurt my hand at all," said Mac cheerfully, printing another kiss on the astonished face of the little nurse. She was so relieved that she kissed him in return.

"Mac, where are you?" came Bill's voice from the hall outside.

"Coming to class meeting?" said Bill, putting his head inside the door. "What the deuce are you doing in here? Eh? Well, I'll be—Congratulations!" Bill vanished discreetly.

A few minutes later Mac came out of the hospital with a jaunty step. He waved his hand at the little nurse, who openly stood at the window and smiled.

CARRIZAL PLUNDER BROUGHT OVER RIVER

MEXICAN PEON DRIVES CAPTURED HORSES TO INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE.

Complaint That Customs Guard Was Fired On Being Investigated.

El Paso, June 30.—Twenty-two horses, twenty-one saddles and a quantity of rifles, pistols, ammunition and clothing captured at Carrizal today were turned over at the international bridge here to American military authorities. The horses were brought to the Mexican end of the structure by a peon and driven across in a drove to the American side, where waiting troopers caught them. The accoutrements were hauled across in a rickety wagon, an American officer signing a receipt for the property.

Military headquarters on the American side were still investigating a complaint made by General Francisco Gonzalez, commander at Juarez, that American troops near Ysleta, Texas, last night fired across the line, killing Juan Moreno, a Mexican customs guard. Nothing was found to substantiate the complaint, it was said.

A report reached American military authorities here today that General Gabriel Cavira, commanding northern Chihuahua, has returned to Juarez from Mexico City, where he conferred with War Minister Obregon. This was denied at the Juarez commandancia with the statement that he is expected there in a day or so.

General Francisco Bertand, formerly in command at Casas Grandes, arrived today from Central Mexico, where he has been recuperating from a severe illness.

Several platoons of cavalry and a motorcycle detachment were ordered from Fort Bliss tonight and stationed in the streets of El Paso. General Bell explaining he had detailed the troops to co-operate with the provost guards in quelling any disturbance which might arise.

New Chinese Cabinet.

Peking, China, June 30.—Li Yuan-Hung, the president of the Chinese republic, today announced the formation of a compromise cabinet. The ministry is headed by Tuan Chi Jui, who takes the war portfolio in addition to the premiership, and the direction of foreign affairs is assumed by T'ung Shao-Yi, who was premier under the late President Yuan Shi Kai.

Clemency Sought for Sir Roger Casement by English Papers

London, June 30.—The Manchester Guardian, one of the most influential papers in the country, makes a direct plea for clemency for Sir Roger Casement, found guilty of treason and condemned to death.

While admitting that no other sentence but that of death could have been pronounced by the court, the Guardian says:

"Casement was a fanatic and his crimes, like those of many other fanatics, are free from the taint of sordidness and meanness. The death penalty will do nothing to kill such dreams as his. Rather it will give them life. "For the sake of the new Ireland which we hope to see, it is a moment for clemency."

An indirect plea for mercy is made by other papers on the ground that the execution of Casement would not assist in settling the Irish problem.

Taft Also Dined.

Bridgehampton, N. Y., June 30.—Former President Taft was the luncheon guest today of Charles E. Hughes at the nominee's temporary summer home here. They discussed the political situation.

FEDERATED MISSIONS HAS INTERESTING DAY

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES HAVE AN ALL-DAY MEETING AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Would Have Saturday Closing of the Department Stores—Discuss Curfew Law.

Discussions of pertinent questions of the moral and social life of the city contributed to make yesterday's session of the City Federation of Missionary Societies an interesting one. Sessions were held in both the morning and afternoon and lunch was served at the church, cafeteria style. Mrs. Llewellyn Aubrey, president of the federation, was in charge of the meeting. Among the matters considered by the various speakers were the necessity of a supply depot of clothing for needy children, early closing of department stores, Sunday observance by the ice men, the curfew law and the present day activities of women.

Mrs. R. G. Patton led the devotional exercise which opened the morning session at 10 o'clock. Roll call and the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting followed.

Speaking of the baby supply department, Miss Bert Wright stressed the needs of each society preparing some baby and children clothing to be used in cases of dire need. These supplies are to be kept at the Evangelical house and have so far proved a charity that fits a very definite need, said Miss Wright.

Mrs. F. M. Longley made a plea for the early closing of the city department stores on Saturday evenings, a half holiday and shorter hours wherever possible. She presented a tentative agreement among some of the stores to accede to these requests if the managers would agree unanimously to abide by them.

Reviewing the work that has thus far been accomplished by the federation and outlining an active and broad campaign for future efforts, Mrs. Aubrey made a comprehensive report on the duties of the federation. The president's report was well received by the members, who indicated their agreement with the ideas of the chairman.

Mrs. Lucy Lattimore led a round table discussion of the activities of the various churches along the lines of training the children in religious work. Representatives of the churches told of the work that was being done by their congregations. Several representatives were assisted in their reports by children who demonstrated some of the plans used. Among these were Roy New for the Austin Avenue Methodist, little Miss Virginia Park for the First Baptist, and little Miss Brightwell, for the Episcopal. These features added much to the interest of the topic.

"Teaching Our Children to Be Dependable" was discussed by Mrs. A. J. Dosssett, who declared that it was essential that the mother teach the child to be reliable, to obey promptly and to appreciate a certain amount of responsibility.

After dismissal by Dr. C. T. Caldwell, the members were served a nicely arranged lunch, cafeteria style, followed by a social hour.

The afternoon program consisted of a devotional service conducted by Mrs. A. B. Hughes, a detailed report of the past month's travelers' aid department by Mrs. Minnie Scarborough, and two talks. Mrs. E. E. Ingram told of the advantages to the city from the inauguration of the curfew law, and Miss Kate Friend gave a very enlightening talk on the activities that are being undertaken by the women of the country and some of the reasons back of the efforts of present day women. Miss Bobbie Childers sang. Dismissal was by Rev. J. J. Grier.

Thomas Mitchell Campbell of Palestine, former state governor and now campaigning for the United States senate, will invade the home of Brooks and Henry on Thursday, July 6, when he will speak in the evening on the court house lawn here, according to announcement made yesterday. Arrangements for the address are being made locally by Dr. W. M. Brumby, who was state health officer under the Campbell administration.

The first time that Mr. Campbell "let the cat out of the bag" definitely was at the Public Servants' Banquet in this city last fall, and it was then by their congregations. Several representatives were assisted in their reports by children who demonstrated some of the plans used. Among these were Roy New for the Austin Avenue Methodist, little Miss Virginia Park for the First Baptist, and little Miss Brightwell, for the Episcopal. These

Aviation School May Be Placed In Waco Sometime During Fall

R. B. North, aviator of the O. E. Williams aeroplane school of Fenton, Mich., who is stopping at the Raleigh, said yesterday that Mr. Williams is seriously contemplating the establishment of an aviation school in Waco this fall and also the installation of machinery for the production of a small output of the biplanes of the Williams type. According to Mr. North, Mr. Williams has had the matter under consideration ever since his first visit to Waco last fall, and that the intention now is to inaugurate the school factory during the coming fall. "Texas weather means flying weather every day, almost," said Mr. North, "while in Michigan, or any Northern state, the percentage of flying days is small. In the summer it is the winds and in the winter it is the ice. Besides, there are many Southern students who can do little work during the winter because flying in cold weather is a tough proposition to one not used to zero weather."

Mr. Williams was captivated on his flying tour of this state last fall.

While in Waco for exhibition flights at the Cotton Palace he stated to a Morning News reporter that the suggestion had come to him and seemed appealing.

Charles P. Link, manager of the Highland Place, said yesterday that it was practically certain that if the school were established here that fifty acres of the Highland Place would be at the disposal of Mr. Williams for the school.

The success of the Stinson school at San Antonio, operated by two young women and their brother, is an indication of the desirability of Texas for this class of work, said Mr. North. The Dallas school, also, proved the desirability of Texas as a location of an aviation school.

At present Mr. North is engaged in a series of exhibition flights for J. E. Porter, candidate for congressman-at-large. His machine is in storage here after an over-sea flight at Galveston, where a broken crank-shaft resulted. When the broken part is received, within the next few days, a flight over this city is scheduled.

THEATRES

HIPPODROME.

"Ambition." Madame Bertha Kalich, whose dramatic ability needs no herald, appears in her second Fox master motion picture, "Ambition," at the Hippodrome theatre today only.

This is a story of political intrigue in typical American life, and affords Madame Kalich unlimited opportunity for dramatic acting. "Slander," her first picture, has been a wonderful success, and it is very sure that "Ambition" will be equally welcomed by the public. Madame Kalich is characterized by a quiet, but tremendously impressive manner and never fails to win the full sympathy of her audience from the minute she is first seen.

Camping parties on the Bosque are quite numerous. Some of those who go come back with slight attacks of fever, due to staying in the sun too much or in the water too long.

There has been a very nice breeze during the past few days, which served to mitigate the heat somewhat. There has been no hot wind yet, and this is fortunate, as the hot wind is the deadly enemy of corn.

The picnic yesterday at Moore Spring, near Chalk Bluff, was an enjoyable affair and many from Waco attended. It was a Woodmen picnic, and it is rare that the Woodmen pull off anything except a successful event.

City Engineer George B. Gurley has been very busy supervising work which is being done on the streets here and there, and with other duties of his office. The street forces are disposed here and there over the city, and have been quite busy.

Senator McGregor of Austin, while in Waco very recently, talked with friends regarding the candidacy of Governor James Ferguson for re-election. Senator McGregor is making speeches in behalf of the governor and is doing what he can to aid him in holding the place which he now occupies.

The primaries will be held "this month," July, and the candidates, realizing that the last month has come, and that they are getting really close to the end of the contest, will be busy with renewed vim, vigor and vitality. They have been moving around lively all ready, but will tighten some more still.

After making a trip through quite a bit of East Texas, Gus Hoover said yesterday that he believed the corn in that part of the state would make a fine yield, and that things were surely looking good there now. Mr. Hoover believes that the corn crop of East Texas will be the best in many years, judging from present indications.

Yesterday marked the last day of the big picnic at Crawford, this having lasted two days, and the people there have reason to feel proud of their success. When it is remembered that farmers are busier than they have ever been in this section the success of the picnic was remarkable, showing that it had been well planned and carried out in proper form. Many from Waco were present each day.

The passing of street cars by autos while people are alighting is said to be still too common, though many machine owners observe this plan rigidly. One reason of this is that should an accident happen in this manner the damage suit attorneys would certainly have a chance to make a landing. Some, however, observe this because they are careful and considerate.

An opening extends through a new rubber hot water bottle into which a glass bottle can be inserted to keep the contents of the latter warm.

Tariffs Are Received by Traffic Manager

H. D. Driscoll, traffic manager of the Chamber of Commerce, has just received a large number of the Southwestern tariffs for the file of traffic rates and information which he is collecting for use in his department. This particular file of tariffs is of particular importance for this section and the collection received adds materially to the present available service of the department.

Mrs. John F. Rowe spoke of the ever present demand for greater sanitation in the dairies, grocery stores, fruit stands and huckster wagons. She emphasized the beneficial results which come from the classification of dairies according to their rank from a sanitary standpoint. She said that this plan would be calculated to create a keener interest in sanitary precautions. This plan would apply to some eighty-five dairies within a radius of Waco, if it were adopted.

Mrs. F. M. Longley made a plea for the early closing of the department stores on Saturday evenings, a half holiday and shorter hours whenever possible. She presented a tentative agreement among some of the stores to accede to these requests if the managers would agree unanimously to abide by them.

features added much to the interest of the topic. "Teaching Our Children to Be Dependable" was discussed by Mrs. A. J. Dossett, who declared that it was essential that the mother teach this child to be reliable, to obey promptly and to appreciate a certain amount of responsibility.

After dismissal by Dr. C. T. Caldwell, the members were served a nicely arranged lunch, cafeteria style, followed by a social hour.

The afternoon program consisted of a devotional service conducted by Mrs. A. B. Hughes, a detailed report of the past month's travels' aid department by Mrs. Minnie Scarborough, and two talks. Mrs. E. E. Ingram told of the advantages to the city from the inauguration of the curfew law, and Miss Kate Friend gave a very enlightening talk on the activities that are being undertaken by the women of the country and some of the reasons back of the efforts of present day women. Miss Bobbie Childers sang. Dismissal was by Rev. J. J. Grier.

Campbell Will Make Address Here on Thursday, July 6

Thomas Mitchell Campbell of Palestine, former state governor and now campaigning for the United States senate, will invade the home of Brooks and Henry on Thursday, July 6, when he will speak in the evening on the court house lawn here, according to announcement made yesterday. Arrangements for the address are being made locally by Dr. W. M. Brumby, who was state health officer under the Campbell administration.

The first time that Mr. Campbell "let the cat out of the bag" definitely was at the Public Servants' Banquet in this city last fall, and it was then that Campbell pledged to come riding into Waco on his famous white burro and fling down the gauntlet in the senatorial campaign.

Aviation School May Be Placed In Waco Sometime During Fall

R. B. North, aviator of the O. E. Williams aeroplane school of Ponton, Mich., who is stopping at the Raleigh, said yesterday that Mr. Williams is seriously contemplating the establishment of an aviation school in Waco this fall and also the installation of machinery for the production of a small output of the biplanes of the Williams type. According to Mr. North, Mr. Williams has had the matter under consideration ever since his first visit to Waco last fall, and that the intention now is to inaugurate the school factory during the coming fall.

"Texas weather means flying weather every day, almost," said Mr. North, "while in Michigan, or any Northern state, the percentage of flying days is small. In the summer it is the warm and in the winter it is the ice. Besides, there are many Southern students who can do little work during the winter because flying in cold weather is a tough proposition to one not used to zero weather."

Mr. Williams was captivated on his flying tour of this state last fall. While in Waco for exhibition flights at the Cotton Palace he stated to a Morning News reporter that the suggestion had come to him and seemed appealing.

Charles P. Link, manager of the Highland Place, said yesterday that it was practically certain that if the school were established here that fifty acres of the Highland Place would be at the disposal of Mr. Williams for the school.

The success of the Stinson school at San Antonio, operated by two young women and their brother, is an indication of the desirability of Texas for this class of work, said Mr. North. The Dallas school, also, proved the desirability of Texas as a location of an aviation school.

At present Mr. North is engaged in a series of exhibition flights for J. E. Porter, candidate for congressman-at-large. His machine is in storage here after an over-sea flight at Galveston, where a broken crank-shaft resulted. When the broken part is received, within the next few days, a flight over this city is scheduled.

HIPPODROME.

"Ambition"

Madame Bertha Kalich, whose dramatic ability needs no herald, aptly whether it be private or public, when ambition takes hold on the soul of a man or woman. Marian Powers is the wife of an ambitious assistant district attorney. He is hopeful of promotion by the political boss of the town but the boss does not think well of Powers and declares that he is going to nominate another for the position which Powers seeks. At her husband's suggestion and hoping to aid him, Marian goes to the home of Moore and intercedes for Powers. For some time she lays siege to Moore's attentions with the result that he falls in love with her and she finds herself loving him. Their relations, however, are entirely platonic, and Powers encourages his wife in her scheme to win the favor of Moore. Moore realizes, even before Marian does, that Powers is willing to sacrifice herself for his political ambitions, and really loving the woman, Moore sets about Powers' punishment. This leads to a precipitous climax and strong ending to a good drama.

William Tooker plays with her and is his usual excellent master of himself and his emotions. Kenneth Hunter plays well as the weak husband who is willing to sell his wife for ambition's sake, and little Kittens Reichert deserves mention as one of the best of the entire cast.

Architects say that they are busy in most cases, and indications point to much activity in the building line next fall.

Camping parties on the Bosque are quite numerous. Some of those who go come back with slight attacks of fever, due to staying in the sun too much or in the water too long.

There has been a very nice breeze during the past few days, which served to mitigate the heat somewhat. There has been no hot wind yet, and this is fortunate, as the hot wind is the deadly enemy of corn.

The picnic yesterday at Moore Spring, near Chalk Bluff, was an enjoyable affair and many from Waco attended. It was a Woodmen picnic, and it is rare that the Woodmen pull off anything except a successful event.

City Engineer George B. Gurley has been very busy supervising work which is being done on the streets here and there, and with other duties of his office. The street forces are disposed here and there over the city, and have been quite busy.

Senator McGregor of Austin, while in Waco very recently, talked with friends regarding the candidacy of Governor James Ferguson for re-election. Senator McGregor is making speeches in behalf of the governor, and is doing what he can to aid him in holding the place which he now occupies.

The primaries will be held "this month," July, and the candidates, realizing that the last month has come, and that they are getting really close to the end of the contest, will hustle with renewed vim, vigor and vitality. They have been moving around lively already, but will tighten some more still.

After making a trip through quite a bit of East Texas, Gus Hoover said yesterday that he believed the corn in that part of the state would make a fine yield, and that things were surely looking good there now. Mr. Hoover believes that the corn crop of East Texas will be the best in many years, judging from present indications.

Yesterday marked the last day of the big picnic at Crawford, this having lasted two days, and the people there have reason to feel proud of their success. When it is remembered that farmers are busier than they have ever been in this section the success of the picnic was remarkable, showing that it had been well planned and carried out in proper form. Many from Waco were present each day.

The passing of street cars by autos, while people are alighting is said to be still too common, though many machine owners observe this plan rigidly. One reason of this is that should an accident happen in this manner the damage suit attorneys would certainly have a chance to make a landing. Some, however, observe it because they are careful and considerate.

An opening extends through a new rubber hot water bottle into which a glass bottle can be inserted to keep the contents of the latter warm.

REAL ESTATE DEALS FOR MONTH OF JUNE SHOW GOOD INCREASE

Not only were more deeds filed of record in McLennan county during the month just passed than in the same month last year, but the aggregate consideration showed the healthy increase of $125,429.26. There is no boom in Waco property or McLennan county land, just a steady demand of the kind that bespeaks solid prosperity.

The total number of real estate transfers for June, 1916, was 166, as to 159 in June of last year. The aggregate consideration was $611,343.91, as to $485,914.65 for the same period in 1915. The transfers, by date, given by the McLennan County street company, are as follows:

Date	Transfers	Consideration
1	1	$5.00
2	5	$2,250.00
3	17	$2,250.00

WHY CONNALLY?

Among the measures of constructive statesmanship advocated by Tom Connally, none, perhaps, is more important to the people of Texas than his earnest advocacy of the establishment of a great merchant marine. His platform has the following:

"The great war now raging in Europe, and the conditions which have accompanied it, have vividly brought to the minds of the American people the necessity for the establishment of an American marine. At one time American-owned ships flying our flag, floated on every sea and carried in American bottoms a large portion of our commerce. But today it is a sadening fact that we have fallen far behind in this regard. When the present war broke like a thundercloud, we found our commerce paralyzed for lack of ships to carry our freight. Cotton, the south's great staple, and heretofore current in every market in the world, could not be marketed except at ruinous prices and under the greatest difficulties.

"The prosperity of the south is absolutely dependent upon the maintenance of a market for cotton. In 1914 while the east and north were prosperous and busily engaged in filling war orders, the south was prostrated, commerce came to a standstill and business reached a period of stagnation never before seen, because we had no ships of our own to transport cotton to the markets of the world.

"The government should foster and encourage the establishment of a merchant marine, not only for the purpose of commerce in time of peace, but for the aid which it can render in time of war.

"In an hour of great national danger a merchant marine could be of incalculable service and assistance to the army and navy, both as an auxiliary to the navy and for transport and supply purposes to the army."

In a time like this, when all kinds of economic absurdities are being advocated to catch voters, it is a real pleasure to quote in these columns the above common-sense statement of a great need of our people, and the palpable remedy for such need. Hundreds of millions of dollars were lost by Texas cotton growers two years ago, because of a lack of ships to transport our cotton to the markets of the world. Tom Connally is the only candidate whose platform touches this great question. This is a political advertisement.

Committee on Missions Had Meeting Here

There was a meeting held last night in the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal church of the missionary committee elected by the council of the diocese to plan out the missionary work of the diocese under direction of the bishop, to map out this work and mature the plans for the year. The bishop could not be present, but the committee made excellent headway, and the work was laid out in good form.

The meeting was called about ten days ago, and the committee met to finish up the work as far as possible. The members had matters well in hand and this expedited the business very decidedly.

Present at the meeting last night were the following members of the committee: Rector W. P. Witsell of St. Paul's church, Waco; Rev. W. H. Williams, Austin; Rev. Curtis Fletcher, Temple; C. L. Johnson and A. J. Dossett, Waco.

Christian Jew Speaks Twice Next Sunday

Dr. C. T. Caldwell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, announced last night that E. Zimmerman, a Christian Jew of Russia, will speak at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning and again at night.

The subject of the morning address will be "Why the Jews Do Not Believe in Christ." At night the visitor will have as his subject, "To the Jew First." Mr. Zimmerman comes highly recommended by Dr. R. E. Vinson, president of the Presbyterian Seminary at Austin, where Mr. Zimmerman has been for the past year. Dr. Vinson states that Mr. Zimmerman's story has been told in several Texas cities, where it has proved to be very interesting if not thrilling, and thinks that those who attend will be more than repaid for the effort.

Bids Wanted.

Sealed bids will be received until 5 p. m. Monday, July 3, 1916, by B. B. Cobb, secretary school board, for certain alterations to be made in South Eighth street school building. Plans and specifications may be obtained at the office of Supt. B. B. Cobb.

Chamber of Commerce Directors

ALEX SANGER

Alex Sanger is one of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce who is always present unless there is some good and sufficient reason for his absence, and always he is a willing, ready and enthusiastic worker, who is ready to do his very best to keep Waco on the map in the right colors. Not only is Alex Sanger a director, but a member of the new executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce, men having been selected for this place who were willing to work for the city and capable of doing something in its behalf. He was a director of the Y. M. B. L. for three different terms, serving faithfully and efficiently always. Alex Sanger is one of the dependable kind, one always alert, active and interested, ready to take hold in the right manner and at the right time, this making him one of Waco's valuable friends and pushers. Mr. Sanger is vice president and director of the Progress club and is prominent in social as well as commercial matters. It is also recalled (and this is used with-out Mr. Sanger's knowledge, or consent) that in matters patriotic he is ever ready and responsive, and when the matter of presenting the Battleship Texas with a silver service was before this community Alex Sanger, acting for Sanger Brothers, cheered the committee greatly by a quick response and generous subscription of $50, the largest that was given here.

Little Boy Run Over by Auto; Ribs Broken

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Abner, living at Eleventh and Speight streets, was run over by an auto about 8 o'clock last night, the child having five ribs broken in the back and two in front. The little fellow is about three and a half years old. Dr. J. L. Robinson and Dr. J. H. Witt attended the injured child at the residence, 1105 Speight street. The party who was in the machine stopped to see about the injury, but while the number of the machine was taken his name was forgotten in the excitement; he said he would come back Saturday to see about the injuries, also. The accident was reported to the city hall, but the patrol wagon or ambulance did not have to go to the sanitarium, as the child remained at home.

RACE TRACK BUSY PLACE LOCKING TO MEET ON JULY 4TH

There are daily work-outs now on the track at the Cotton Palace park, in preparation of the races which are to be held here July Fourth, to which all Central Texas is invited and many are expected.

"Bob" Nickels is now busy at the track every day. He is looking after his own stable, as well as the arrangements and plans for the races, which are to be under his direction and control. He has arranged this meeting because he believes the people of Central Texas want some sport for July 4, and as there are excursion rates on all rail lines for that occasion, he believes there will be a big attendance. He has decided to continue the racing for two days, Tuesday, July 4, and Wednesday, July 5. There is no ball game July 4 in this city, but there will be one July 5 and in order not to interfere with the ball game, the races will be started at 1:30 p. m. July 5, so as to finish before the game starts.

There will be two harness events and two running events each day, and some of the best horses in Texas will start in the races.

There are a large number of horses stabled now at the track, and are being given close attention by their trainers. J. F. Case has brought his string of seven from Louisiana for this occasion. He has two trotters and five pacers.

W. W. Orr, who has been on the Louisiana circuit with five—two trotters and three pacers, has arrived with his stable, to get ready for the Fourth of July meeting, and the day following.

John Humphreys of Marlin is here with a trotter and a pacer.

O. J. Stokes of Temple, with a trotter and a side-wheeler, is here stabled for the events.

There will be five head of harness horses from Hillsboro.

L. H. Propes is at the track with four trotters and a couple of side-wheeler.

There are twelve runners on the ground, and the information from San Saba is that about a carload of runners will be brought from there.

Ben Horton of Cleburne will bring two harness horses.

The admission for the events will be 50c, with the grandstand free. Child under 8 years will be free and from 8 to 12 years 25c.

Local Deaths

Mrs. Martha R. Chambers. After a residence in Waco of practically four decades, Mrs. Martha R. Chambers, aged 80 years, died at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. H. M. Hooper, 1319 Vermont avenue.

The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock this morning from the residence of Mrs. Hooper, conducted by Rev. John G. Kendall, interment to be at Oakwood cemetery. Mrs. Chambers was generally beloved and the influence of her useful life will be felt for a long time. She came to Waco thirty-nine years ago and was originally from Georgia. Her husband, J. B. Chambers, died fifteen years ago in this city. Mrs. Chambers, besides her children, is survived by twenty-eight grandchildren and forty-seven great-grandchildren. Her own children who survive her are: Joseph Chambers, Waco; S. W. Chambers, Waco; Mrs. J. S. McGinty, Axtell; Mrs. H. J. Fowler, Waco; Mrs. H. M. Hooper, Waco.

The pall bearers were selected from the grandsons of Mrs. Chambers as follows: E. M. Tucker, James McGinty, Arthur McGinty, Alver Chambers, T. F. Gray and Sanford Halpain.

Clarence Jones. The funeral of Clarence Jones, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Jones of Eddy, was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being at Moody.

Jerry A. Payne. Jerry A. Payne, a physician of the Gholson community, died at his home yesterday. Interment will follow this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Gholson cemetery. The decedent was a highly respected citizen of his community.

1,000 RED CROSS MEMBERS ENROLLED

Practically 1,000 members—the original goal—were reported by the team captains of the Red Cross membership campaign at the meeting last night at the headquarters. The supply of buttons has again become exhausted and President W. W. Seley last night wired to New York for 2,000 more Red Cross buttons. Beginning today, the territory will be thrown open and team captains will be at liberty to give their members free reign. The city already has been canvassed according to the original designation of districts. The campaign will continue through next Monday.

Team captains will meet again this evening at 8 o'clock in order to make their reports. New members are being informed that they will be supplied with buttons just as soon as the next consignment arrives. They may then be secured by calling at the Waco State bank.

ALEX SANGER

Alex Sanger is one of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce who is always present unless there is some good and sufficient reason for his absence, and always he is a willing, ready and enthusiastic worker, who is ready to do his very best to keep Waco on the map in the right colors. Not only is Alex Sanger a director, but a member of the new executive committee of the rejuvenated Chamber of Commerce, men having been selected for this place who were willing to work for the city and capable of doing something in its behalf. He was a director of the Y. M. C. A. for three different terms, serving faithfully and efficiently always.

Alex Sanger is one of the dependable kind, one always alert, active and interested, ready to take hold in the right manner and at the right time, this making him one of Waco's valuable friends and pushers. Mr. Sanger is vice president and director of the Progress club and is prominent in social as well as commercial matters. It is also recalled (and this is used with consent) that in matters patriotic he is ever ready and responsive, and when the matter of presenting the Battleship Texas with a silver service was before this community Alex Sanger, acting for Sanger Brothers, cheered the committee greatly by a quick response and generous subscription of $50, the largest that was given here.

Little Boy Run Over by Auto; Ribs Broken

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Abner, living at Eleventh and Speight streets, was run over by an auto about 8 o'clock last night, the child having five ribs broken in the back and two in front. The little fellow is about three and a half years old.

Dr. J. L. Robinson and Dr. J. H. Witt attended the injured child at the residence, 1105 Speight street. The party who was in the machine stopped to see about the injury, but while the number of the machine was taken his name was forgotten in the excitement; he said he would come back Saturday to see about the injuries, also.

The accident was reported to the city hall, but the patrol wagon or ambulance did not have to go to the sanitarium, as the child remained at home.

RACE TRACK BUSY PLACE LOCKING TO MEET ON JULY 4TH

There are daily work-outs now on the track at the Cotton Palace park, in preparation of the races which are to be held here July Fourth, to which all Central Texas is invited and many are expected.

"Bob" Nickels is now busy at the track every day. He is looking after his own stable, as well as the arrangements and plans for the races, which are to be under his direction and control. He has arranged this meeting because he believes the people of Central Texas want some sport for July 4, and as there are excursion rates on all rail lines for that occasion, he believes there will be a big attendance. He has decided to continue the racing for two days, Tuesday, July 4, and Wednesday, July 5. There is no ball game July 4 in this city, but there will be one July 5 and in order not to interfere with the ball game, the races will be started at 1:30 p. m., July 5, so as to finish before the game starts.

There will be two harness events and two running events each day, and some of the best horses in Texas will start in the races. There are a large number of horses stabled now at the track, and are being given close attention by their trainers. J. F. Case has brought his string of seven from Louisiana for this occasion. He has two trotters and five pacers. W. V. Orr, who has been on the Louisiana circuit with five—two trotters and three pacers, has arrived with his stable, to get ready for the Fourth of July meeting, and the day following. John Humphreys of Marlin is here with a trotter and a pacer.

O. J. Stokes of Temple, with a trotter and a side-wheeler, is here stabled for the events.

There will be five head of harness horses from Hillsboro. L. H. Propes is at the track with four, two trotters and a couple of side-wheelers.

There are twelve runners on the ground, and the information from San Saba is that about a carload of runners will be brought from there. Ben Horton of Cleburne will bring two harness horses.

The admission for the events will be 50c, with the grandstand free. Children under 8 years will be free and from 8 to 12 years 25c.

Local Deaths

Mrs. Martha R. Chambers.

After a residence in Waco of practically four decades, Mrs. Martha R. Chambers, aged 80 years, died at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. H. M. Hooper, 1319 Vermont avenue.

The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock this morning from the residence of Mrs. Hooper, conducted by Rev. John G. Kendall, interment to be at Oakwood cemetery. Mrs. Chambers was generally beloved and the influence of her useful life will be felt for a long time. She came to Waco thirty-nine years ago and was originally from Georgia. Her husband, J. B. Chambers, died fifteen years ago in this city. Mrs. Chambers, besides her children, is survived by twenty-eight grandchildren and forty-seven great-grandchildren. Her own children who survive her are: Joseph Chambers, Waco; S. W. Chambers, Waco; J. S. McGinty, Axtell; Mrs. H. J. Fowler, Waco; Mrs. H. M. Hooper, Waco.

The pall bearers were selected from the grandsons of Mrs. Chambers as follows: E. M. Tucker, James McGinty, Arthur McGinty, Alver Chambers, T. F. Gray and Sanford Halpain.

Clarence Jones.

The funeral of Clarence Jones, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Jones of Eddy, was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being at Moody.

Death occurred at Eddy, and the funeral was conducted by the John Fall Undertaking company.

Jerry A. Payne. Jerry A. Payne, aged 71, a physician of the Gholson community, died at his home yesterday. Interment will follow this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Gholson cemetery. The decedent was a highly respected citizen of his community.

1,000 RED CROSS MEMBERS ENROLLED

Practically 1,000 members—the original goal—were reported by the team captains of the Red Cross membership campaign at the meeting last night at the headquarters. The supply of buttons has again become exhausted and President W. W. Seley last night wired to New York for 2,000 more Red Cross buttons. Beginning today, the territory will be thrown open and team captains will be at liberty to give their members free reign. The city already has been canvassed according to the original designation of districts. The campaign will continue through next Monday.

Team captains will meet again this evening at 8 o'clock in order to make their reports. New members are being informed that they will be supplied with buttons just as soon as the next consignment arrives. They may then be secured by calling at the Waco State bank.

BITTLE IS HIGHWAY ROBBER

Galveston, June 30.—Clyde Barfoot pitched good ball today with the exception of one inning, allowing only five hits, and Galveston defeated Waco, 3 to 2. The real feature of the afternoon was a sensational barchard catch by Bittle of Barfoot's line drive in the second, with two on bases. The hit was labeled for three bases had it gotten away.

Galveston scored in the first. Braux was safe on Conwell's error and scored on Miller's single. Johnson sacrificed. Balenti singled over third, scored Braux.

Another was made in the second on two singles and Barfoot's sacrifice fly. The last run was scored in the fifth when Braux tripled and counted on Johnson's single.

Waco made her two runs in the second inning. James walked and went to second on Tanner's out. Kuhn was out, but Wohlleben singled to left, scoring James. Fred stole second and came home when Malmquist singled to left, scoring James. Fred stole second, but Bittle grounded to Barfoot.

The Shippers were retired in order in the third and fourth, but in the fifth threatened to score. Malmquist started with a swing and Bittle singled, sending Malmquist to third. A double steal was attempted and Malmquist was caught at the plate. In the sixth Kuhn was passed, but Wohlleben Malmquist and Grubb, who hit for Sage, were easy outs. The score:

Katy League Teams Play Here Today

There will be a red-hot, tense and thrilling game of baseball this afternoon at 4 o'clock, Katy Park, between teams of the Texas Central and of Port Worth, each of whose members are of the Katy Athletic league, and Manager George H. Wiebusch of the Texas Central aggregation of ball tossers said yesterday that there was going to be something doing when the two teams came together.

A big crowd will come down from Port Worth with the ball players and they will do some tail rooting, but it will take rooting and playing and planning to down the Texas Central bunch.

A goodly contingent from Walnut Springs is expected to be on hand, as it is expected to be one of the best of the entire series of the Katy Athletic association.

BATTLE IS HIGHWAY ROBBER

Many Chances to Score Are Passed Up by Failure to Hit in Pinches and One Gunned-Up Steal.

Galveston, June 30.—Clyde Barfoot pitched good ball today with the exception of one inning, allowing only five hits, and Galveston defeated Waco, 3 to 2. The real feature of the afternoon was a sensational barehand catch by Bittle of Barfoot's line drive in the second, with two on bases. The hit was labeled for three bases had it gotten away.

Galveston scored in the first. Breux was safe on Conwell's error and took second on Miller's single. Johnson sacrificed. Balenti singled over third, scoring Breux.

Another was made in the second on two singles and Barfoot's sacrifice fly. The last run was scored in the fifth when Breux tripled and counted on Johnson's single.

Waco made her two runs in the second inning. James walked and went to second on Tanner's out. Kuhn was out, but Wohlleben singled to left, scoring James. Fred stole second and came home when Malmquist singled to left. Sage was safe on Sturges' error, but Bittle grounded to Barfoot.

The Skippers were retired in order in the third and fourth, but in the fifth threatened to score. Malmquist singled, when Sage sacrificed, sending Malmquist to third. A double steal was attempted and Malmquist was caught at the plate. In the ninth Kuhn was passed, but Wohlleben, Malmquist and Grob, who hit for Sage, were easy outs.

Katy League Teams Play Here Today

There will be a red-hot, tense and thrilling game of baseball this afternoon at 4 o'clock, Katy Park, between teams of the Texas Central and of Fort Worth, each of these being members of the Katy Athletic league. San Antonio's George H. Wiebusch of the Texas Central aggregation of ball tossers said yesterday that there was going to be something doing when the two teams came together.

A big crowd will come down from Fort Worth with its ball players and they will do some tail routing, but it will be rooting and playing and planning to down the Texas Central bunch.

Goodly contingents from Walnut Springs to see the game, which is expected to be one of the best of the entire series of the Katy Athletic association.

BOSTON 6, WASHINGTON 1

Washington, June 30.—A row between Captain McBride of the Washington team and Mays, the Boston pitcher, precipitated a clash in the third inning of today's game here that threatened for a time to develop into a general fight among the players of the two clubs. The police restored order and after Agnew, a Boston catcher had been arrested, and Captain McBride and Manager Griffith of the Washingtons put off the field the game was resumed and Boston won 6 to 1. "A TRI THROUGH THE FACTORY"

Number 5.

Answering some of the questions most frequently asked by subscribers concerning the working of a telephone exchange.

12. "What do you mean, in the telephone directory, when you list a number of telephones after one number, and say, 'When number so-and-so answers, ask for the department wanted?'"

A listing of this character represents a Private Branch Exchange. That is, the subscriber has a complete small telephone exchange—consisting of a small switchboard and a number of telephones connected to it—on his own premises. The subscriber will have one or more "trunks," or lines, from the telephone company's exchange to his switchboard.

Part of Positions 8 and 9,
New Waco Switchboard.

All the telephone company can do, therefore, is to connect you with the subscriber's switchboard. Then you must ask for the particular telephone, connected with that switchboard, that you want, and the Private Branch Exchange operator makes the connection for you.

13. "Do the Private Branch Exchange operators come under the control of the telephone company?"

No. They are employed and paid by the subscriber, and work under his control.

14. "Do all business houses with more than one or two telephones have Private Branch Exchanges?"

No. Some prefer, instead, to have a number of "straight" or direct lines to the main exchange; others who do not use enough telephones to justify the employment of an operator, have "intercommunicating" systems, which consist of a number of telephones on the premises, so arranged that any one of them can call any other one of them, or any of them can call "Central."

Newsies Will Read Bible to Take a Swim

Oscar Adwan, teacher of the Working Boys' Sunday school class, has evolved a plan to interest the boys in studying the Bible that is calculated to get results. The class consists of over 100 newsies, messenger boys and youngsters of the street—all vigorous young Americans, but not calculated, at their age, to have a natural fondness for Bible study. Adwan is something of a strategist; it develops from the nature of the plan he is using. Obviously, swimming is the greatest thing a boy can conceive of these warm days. Adwan's plan is to connect up swimming with Bible study.

Sunday afternoon each of the 100 or more boys will receive a little pamphlet containing the gospel of Saint Matthew. When the boy has finished this, if it is within the week, he will receive one swim in the Y. M. C. A. natatorium and another testament portion. If the youngster completes this within the week he gets another swim and the next gospel. When the lad shall have read four gospels and received his four swims he will be presented an entire New Testament with due honors.

Adwan figures that the reading of the testaments is calculated to make a boy cleaner on the inside and the swim makes him cleaner externally, so that the newsie when he shall have finished his examinations will be a pretty clean little fellow.

Although the plan was not announced to become effective until Sunday, some twenty-five boys during the week have been anxiously trying to start reading in advance. Each boy will receive a brief oral examination on each gospel.

MARKET REPORT

COTTON

New York, June 30.—The circulation of a few additional July notices caused some near month liquidation in the cotton market here today and factions were irregular. Otherwise, however, there was very little feature and after selling off to 12.91 July closed at 13 with a moderate list closing steady net unchanged to 5 points higher.

The market opened steady at an advance of 1 to 2 points as a result of overnight covering orders, but there was very little demand in evidence and prices turned easier owing to the cash market. July liquidation seemed to find comparatively few buyers around the rings, the easier ruling of the market appearing to bring a little pressure against new crop deliveries. This came partly from Liverpool sources during the early trading and new crop months worked about 3 to 4 points net lower during the middle of the day.

General business was extremely quiet, which local traders took to mean that scattering accounts had been pretty well evened up for export orders. The report tomorrow and the holiday early next week.

The average of private reports issued during the past few days has been 79.6 per cent compared with 79.8 last month and the talk around the rings has reflected general expectation that the government report tomorrow would be slightly under the ten-year average of 80.2 per cent.

Weekly Cotton Review.
New York, June 30.—The cotton market has been unsettled and irregular during the past week owing to near-month liquidation as a result of July notices and a more or less general evening up of accounts for export orders. The crop report, which is to be published tomorrow morning.

There had been rumors in the market during the previous week that cotton originally intended for delivery on contracts here had been sold for export to take advantage of the easier cotton situation and prices had advanced on expectations that very little cotton would be tendered on July contracts. This developed on the first notice day, however, that notices representing nearly 30,000 bales had been issued and their appearance in the street brought out a good deal of scattered liquidation.

Uncertainty as to the showing of the government report for the week, a steadier tone in ocean freight doubtless promoted selling, but there were moderate rallies toward the end of the week on covering.

KING CANDY COMPANY

TRAIN ARRIVES TODAY

LUXURIOUSLY EQUIPPED SPECIAL TRAIN OF FORT WORTH CON-CERN WILL MAKE STOP.

Y. M. B. L. Has Arranged to Entertain the Vacationists for an Hour This Morning.

Traveling in their special car of all-steel Pullmans, observation car, dining and confectionery car, buffet, with barber shop conveniences and almost every luxury known to the modern train, 200 officers and employees of the King Candy company of Fort Worth will arrive in Waco this morning at 10 o'clock and remain for one hour as the guests of the Y. M. B. L. and the city. The special is en route to Galveston for an outing of the employees on the coast.

When the train stops at Fourth and Jackson streets, the visitors will be met by a number of the local citizens, the fire department and autoists. The King party will have their own parade formation up Fourth street to Austin and thence to the Raleigh. Waco autos will carry the party from the Raleigh for a trip over the city.

Arrangements for greeting the visitors are in charge of a Y. M. B. L. committee consisting of L. E. Bain, E. C. Blomeyer, John F. Wright, W. W. Naman and T. H. Williams. This committee has been working in conference with some of the merchants regarding their plans for the welcoming ceremonies.

Many souvenirs and a quantity of candy will be distributed by the King delegation and according to their custom, a city soon finds that the King bunch is "among them." The trip is being conducted by C. A. Godfrey, publicist manager for the King Candy company and one who has had experience in arranging for booster specials. Waco is the home of O. H. Sanders, an energetic salesman of the company.

Although the trip is arranged as an outing at Galveston, the plan is to make stops en route, to take on parties composed of friends and customers of the King Candy company, who have already engaged their transportation, and to afford the people an opportunity to become thoroughly acquainted with the excellent products of the King Candy company. In Temple and Houston those on the train will take part in "get-together" banquets, planned by the merchants of these two cities, and the entire delegation will be made members of the mysterious order, the "Ku Klux Klan" at Galveston.

The special train will leave Galveston for Fort Worth on July 4, a stop to be made in Hillsboro where those of the party will participate in the Fourth of July observance at that place.

Paupers Like Traveling too

"Perhaps you wouldn't suspect it, but the indigent public like to travel and to change about just like persons of means, and it is a difficult problem sometimes to deny them," said Secretary William Lambdin of the United Charities yesterday.

"Those who are dependent on the United Charities often give reasons for being sent to this place or that which are so plausible that it requires sifting of the case to get at the facts, and sometimes, of course, the reasons are valid, and we do send them to other places. Occasionally some one will go away, promising not to return to Waco again, claiming that they have relatives or friends in some other place who will care for them, but unless care is observed they will show up here again after a bit. All this makes it necessary to certain this traveling feature as much as possible." A low rate is given those who are sent by recognized charitable institutions like the United Charities.

Secretary Lambdin says that the last ten days or two weeks have witnessed many calls for help, as sickness is more prevalent, due probably to the hot weather; there is some fever to combat, also.

Mart Employees Have Enjoyable Picnic at Day's Lake

The Mart employees of the International Great Northern mart had had a picnic at Day's Lake yesterday, this being an annual event.

A special train carried the employees and some of their Mart friends to the lake, and the Mart band was with them and discoursed music throughout the day. There was dinner on the grounds, two ball games and other amusements which made the time pass swiftly.

When the time came for returning to Mart all went back feeling tired but happy, and feeling also that the day had been well spent.

Pat M. Neff Will Take Stump for S. P. Brooks

Hon. Pat M. Neff, former speaker of the house of representatives and well known member of the Waco bar, will take the stump in behalf of the candidacy of Dr. S. P. Brooks for the United States senate, opening with an address this afternoon at Hillsboro. On Monday Mr. Neff will leave for the Panhandle country on a short Brooks speaking tour.

Mr. Neff was a roommate of Dr. Brooks in their college days and both have been closely associated since in the work of Baylor university. Mr. Neff being president of the board of trustees of the institution.

Traction Company Gets Christening Anew Today

Beginning today, the properties of the Southern Traction company and of the Texas Traction company in Texas will be known as the Texas Electric Railway company; this change in designation resulting from the consolidation of the two big concerns, which has been effected and which merges the two interurbans and their holdings, making it a great big business.

The consolidation was perfected after the two concerns had dickered for some time, and the basis on which the deal was made has already been set forth fully and completely in these columns.

It is claimed that Waco and every other point affected will be benefited by the consolidation, and that ere long it will be possible to travel across Texas by interurban.

Troop Trains Are Passing Through This City

Troop trains have been passing through Waco pretty lively for the last twenty-four hours, but as the government has requested that no specific mention be made of the destination of troops, and as accurate information as to the destination of the men is hard to obtain, the newspapers are refraining from too much particularization in order to co-operate with the authorities in this matter.

All roads which have northern connections or eastern connections are handling the troops, and the equipment which is being used is excellent in most cases.

From the looks of things, the Mexican border will soon be swarming with men, and Texas will be the great storehouse or commissary, as it were, from which supplies will first be drawn in looking after the needs of the troops.

Will Demonstrate Care Sweet Spuds at Lake View

Dr. R. M. Harkey of A. & M. college, who was in Waco yesterday and stopped at the Waco hotel, is engaged in a most interesting work in the state, and one which has to do with adding to the food supply of the race by taking care of the food raised, especially the sweet potatoes.

He is demonstrating the new process for treating sweet potatoes by placing them in specially constructed storage places, these places being ventilated and heated in a scientific manner so as to bring the sweet potatoes to the right point for preserving and keeping them.

One of these demonstrations is to be made at Lakeview, above Waco. It is understood that there will be something like 200,000 bushels of the sweet potatoes treated in this manner during the present year.

East Waco Levee Has Careful Attention

Acting on suggestions from the city commission, the suggestions having been made by Commissioner Ben C. Richards, the levee in East Waco has been strengthened and preparations have been made whereby sand bags have been deposited so that they could be reached easily in case of a rise in the river.

Four corrugated iron buildings have been constructed, each about ten feet square, at different points on the levee, and sand bags have been placed in each of these, so that in case of a break it would be easy to get sand bags for filling until other bags of like character could be made ready.

It is believed that these preparations will have much to do with holding the river within bounds in future.

The levee will be inspected thoroughly every ninety days by the engineer, and in to minimize the the East Side.

Traction Company Gets Christening Anew Today

Beginning today, the properties of the Southern Traction company and of the Texas Traction company in Texas will be known as the Texas Electric Railway company, this change in designation resulting from the consolidation of the two big concerns, which has been effected and which merges the two interurbans and their holdings, making it a great big business. The consolidation was perfected after the two concerns had dickered for some time, and the basis on which the deal was made has already been set forth fully and completely in these columns. It is claimed that Waco and every other point affected will be benefited for some time, and the basis on which the consolidation, and that ere long it will be possible to travel across Texas by interurban.

Troop Trains Are Passing Through This City

Troop trains have been passing through Waco pretty lively for the last twenty-four hours, but as the government has requested that no specific mention be made of the destination of troops, and as accurate information as to the destination of the men is hard to obtain, the newspapers are refraining from too much particularization in order to co-operate with the authorities in this matter. All roads which have northern connections or eastern connections are handling the troops, and the equipment which is being used is excellent in most cases. From the looks of things, the Mexican border will soon be swarming with men, and Texas will be the great storehouse or commissary, as it were, from which supplies will first be drawn in looking after the needs of the troops.

Will Demonstrate Care Sweet Spuds at Lake View

Dr. R. M. Harkey of A. & M. college, who was in Waco yesterday and stopped at the Waco hotel, is engaged in a most interesting work in the state, and one which has to do with adding to the food supply of the race by taking care of the food raised, especially the sweet potatoes. He is demonstrating the new process for treating sweet potatoes by placing them in specially constructed storage places, these places being ventilated and heated in a scientific manner so as to bring the sweet potatoes to the right point for preserving and keeping them. One of these demonstrations is to be made at Lakeview, above Waco. It is understood that there will be something like 200,000 bushels of the sweet potatoes treated in this manner during the present year.

East Waco Levee Has Careful Attention

Acting on suggestions from the city commission, the suggestions having been made by Commissioner Ben C. Richards, the levee in East Waco has been strengthened and preparations have been made whereby sand bags have been deposited so that they could be reached easily in case of a rise in the river. Four corrugated iron buildings have been constructed, each about ten feet square, at different points on the levee, and sand bags have been placed in each of these, so that in case a break it would be easy to get sand bags for filling until other of like character could be made ready. It is believed that these preparations will have much to do with holding the river within bounds in future. The levee will be inspected thoroughly every ninety days by the
